"Don't tell me"

I'm going to tell you something
I hope you'll never have to know.
I'll tell you how a heart can break
And tears can constantly flow.

I lost my baby boy you see,
An angel in my eyes
God chose to take his hand one day
And led him to the skies.

But please do not forget my child
He was a person too
And forever he will live
Inside of me and you.

So, please don't ever tell me
That time will heal my pain
Because not even time
Can bring him back again.

Just tell me he is happy
In that land way up above
He's snuggled in an angels wings
And forever wrapped in Mommy's love.

I saw the hurt and pain in your eyes when you visited me but we continued enjoying each other laughing, talking and listening to your music. You kept telling me you wanted to go to church, I felt that and I hate that this has to be the way you made it to church. I pray you're at peace and I will always love you, an aunties love is forever and you'll always be my nunu as I always called you. Love you TT Ro

Message To KENYAUN MORRIS

Dudas if tears could build a stairway and memories were a lane I would walk right up to heaven and bring you back again. No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye, you were gone before I knew it and only god knows why - Taijae Morris

When you left the other half of me left with you. I'm forever with you. You tried and fought for so long and im so proud of how strong you were. I'm thankful for the bond we shared growing up. Thanks to Jalen for being our big brother through good and bad times. Thank you granny (Darlene Cone) for taking us under your wing, for loving us and allowing us to grow up with each other and share love with one another that we never knew we needed. Dudas my twin I love you and there's not a day that I wont think of you. I'll never forget the love and protection you gave me - Zalayshia Morris
