My Hand in His

When life is bright and sunny
Or when my sky is gray,
It comforts me to know my God
Is never far away.

I cannot go beyond His Reach
No matter where I roam.
I'm safely held within His care,
Away or here at home.

My hands secure in His each day,
I follow where He leads;
He knows the way and I'm assured
He will supply my needs.

When I must journey on from here,
I will not go alone;
He who safely guides will lead me
To my heavenly home.
