

Let Me Go

When my time is up, it is time to just let me go.
Please cherish the memories that you will know,
Life does go on and you must live yours out,
I know we'll be together again without a doubt,

Let me go without feeling hurt or shedding tears,
I am going to a place where there is no fear,
I have left this world, the life in my body is gone,
My spirit will be around while you live on,

Let me go because I will no longer feel any pain,
Remember my legacy and all that I have gained,
I thank God for allowing me to see the years pass,
My time has come, and I am going home at last,

Let me go because this is God's plan and his will,
God will give you comfort, he knows how you feel,
I love all of you even as I leave this earthly world,
Until the time when we meet at the gates of Pearl,

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

Clarissa Renee' Ford

*To plant a seed in one's heart...to root it in love...
To nourish it with time spent together...
Yields a blossom that will flourish forever.*

Clarissa Ford passed away on Friday, September 4, 2020. She was born January 9th, 1987 in Denver, Colorado to Ralph E. Ford Sr. and Clarette Samuels.

Clarissa attended Denver and Aurora Public schools where she was active in cheerleading and the Steppers team. Clarissa graduated from Overland High School in 2005 before attending Metropolitan State College in downtown Denver.

Clarissa had a beautiful smile and outgoing personality that made it easy for her to make friends. She had a great sense of humor and was confident in everything she accomplished.

Clarissa was naturally talented as well as smart and was always looking for something to create. She started her own brand of clothing called "Juicy Riss". It did not matter what she did, she was determined to succeed.

She worked at various jobs, but her passion was helping others. She worked at the Homeless Coalition where she helped provide housing and insurance to those who were in need. Before her premature death she was in the process of starting a nonprofit organization to continue working with the homeless and underprivileged population. She was looking forward to doing great things in her life after becoming a licensed insurance agent.

Family and friends were Clarissa's delight. She grew up with memories of going to the Church of God in Christ with her grandmother and spending fun times with her parents and siblings.

Clarissa was a dedicated mother who adored her children. Her eight-year-old daughter said, "If mama get something, we all get something." Although Clarissa was just 33 years old at the time of her death, she affected many people. She loved flowers and bright colors which reflects how she saw the world.

Clarissa's memories are treasured by her parents; Ralph E. Ford Sr. and Clarette Samuels of Denver, Colorado; children, Janyah Davis, Alaysia Simpson, A'Millyn Coleman and Aneesah Isrea; siblings, Derrick (Tammy) Samuels, Ralph E. Ford Jr. (Felicia), all of Denver, Colorado., Victoria (Andre) Coleman, Dejana Patrick, of Denver Colorado. and Shawanda Brinson of Augusta, Georgia; a special cousin and friend she held near and dear to her heart, Breanna Boyd and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and many friends.
