

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's Sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; For thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

In Loving Memory of...

Joy Virginia Walsh

You are my sunshine, my only sunshine. You make me happy when skies are gray. You'll never know,
dear, how much I love
you. Please don't take my sunshine away.

Remembering Joy...

Joy Virginia Walsh, a beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully on January 28, 2024, at her home in Winnsboro at the age of 92. She was born on December 21, 1931, in Winnsboro to parents, James A. Swann and Iva Mae Moss. Joy was one of twelve children and grew up on a farm, fostering a strong work ethic that would stay with her throughout her life.

Joy began her career at a candy factory in Sulphur Springs before finding her calling in the medical field. She worked at the Winnsboro Hospital as a lab and x-ray technician, using her skills to contribute to the well-being of her community. Later in life, Joy's nurturing spirit led her to become a dedicated home health caregiver until her retirement around ten years ago.

Aside from her profession, Joy was a member of East Point Baptist Church, finding strength in her faith. She had a passion for music and singing. Cooking was one of Joy's favorite hobbies, using her culinary skills to bring joy to those around her. She also enjoyed spending time outdoors, whether it be tending to her garden, casting a line while fishing, or engaging in friendly competitions in softball and basketball. Joy loved playing games, particularly dominoes, 42, and Farkle.

Above all else, Joy cherished her time with family and friends. She found immense joy in attending family reunions and gatherings, treasuring the moments spent together. Her natural caregiving instincts extended beyond her profession, as she always went above and beyond to ensure the happiness and well-being of those she loved.

Joy Virginia Walsh's kind spirit and selfless nature will be deeply missed by all who knew her. She leaves behind her daughter, Lori Walsh; son, Kim Winterbauer; brother, Dorman Wayne Swann; granddaughter, April Arrington; grandson, Eric Arrington and wife Shanna; great grandsons, Ethan Arrington and Chance Arrington; and numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Joy is preceded in death by her husband, James D. Walsh; daughter, Sherry Lynn Winterbauer; parents, James Alphonso Swann and Iva Mae Moss; six brothers, James Swann, Roy Swann, Elden Lavern Swann, Gerald Swann, William Eugene Swann, Arvel Swann; and four sisters, Lois Baily, Imadell Lambert, Gypsy Tyrece Martin, and Rebecca Bench.

If desired, donations in memory of Joy Walsh may be made to The Historic Shady Grove Cemetery, PO Box 861, Winnsboro, TX 75494.

In Loving Memory of Joy Virginia Walsh

Date of Birth

December 21, 1931

Entered into Rest

January 28, 2024

GRAVESIDE SERVICE

2:00 PM Friday, February 2, 2024

The Historic Shady Grove Cemetery
Winnsboro, Texas

OFFICIATING

Brother Paul Chandler

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

As we forgive them that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,

For ever and ever.

Amen.