Thanks to Lotto and KZN DSR for sponsoring the accommodation, travel and refreshments for 15 development children. Note 3 PDI children highlighted in red made the finals !

Junior interpros yielded the best news ever. Our u15 KZN side won !! First time in yonks. We are smiling just as broadly as these kids. Fantabulous. The U13 A side came 3rd , U13 B side came 11th. The U19's came 4th. On the next slide are all the kids that made the SA sides.

Back from left James Edley, Karan Varyani, Marylyn Cotton, Storm Veenstra, Kylie Misdorp

60A side Interpro to Boland. Buck's tennis skills are clearly better than his IT skills, as he had to rope in his wife Bev to w.app this picture to me. After this chirp, he will probably clobber me off the court at Himeville.

Jean Hubert, Buck Morrison, Lindsay North, Judy Goss, Pumla Xotyeni, Nora Simpson

Doctors have recently successfully transplanted a pigs eardrum into a human with only one problem so far. Every now and then there is a bit of crackling.

Well done to all our KZN players, you've done us proud. Until next time
! Kim
