Jacqueline S. Busch-Pansch was born on June 21, 1945, the daughter of Alfred Annal and Kathleen (Rose) Brennen in Ipswich, England. Jacqueline lived in England until 1965 when she met Michael Busch and then moved to Minnesota. They were united in marriage on September 3, 1965 until his death June 12, 1979 and raised two daughters, Donna and Diana. Jacqueline met Dale Pansch in 1985. They were united in marriage on February 12, 1993 and then moved to their home in Miliona Township in 1995.

Jacqueline's main job was mother and wife, she worked various jobs and also made and sold different crafts throughout the years. She loved to paint, garden, and was the world's best cook, according to her family. Jacqueline loved her family dearly, especially her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, praying nightly for their health and safety. She was a strong-willed woman who was a fighter against her illnesses she endured. She will be forever loved by her family and friends.

Jacqueline S. Pansch died on Saturday, August 10, 2019, peacefully at her home at the age of 74 years old.
