

"Twenty-Third Psalm"

*The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Celebrating the Life of

Catherine Moore Glenn

September 22, 1931 – November 6, 2024

Celebrating...Honoring...Remembering

Memorial Chapel of Berry Funeral Home
Tuesday, November 12, 2024, at 11:00a.m.

Order of Service

Preservice Music	Mrs. Diane Moss
Processional "Going Up Yonder"	Mr. Robert Mattox
Welcome	Rev. Ken Thrift
"Precious Lord, Take My Hand"	Mr. Robert Mattox
Remarks	Mr. Tanner Moore
"Just As I Am"	Mr. Robert Mattox
Message	Rev. Ken Thrift
"How Great Thou Art"	Mr. Robert Mattox
Closing Prayer	Rev. Ken Thrift
Recessional "It Is Well"	Mr. Robert Mattox
Entombment	Forest Hills Memorial Park

Pallbearers

Robbie Moore, Chad Moore, Wesley Moore,
Tanner Moore, Colsen Moore, Canaan Richardson

Honorary Pallbearers

Jerry Hendricks, Darrell Seagraves, Dwayne Moore,
Allen Moore, Rusty Adams,
Donnie Parham, Wilford Heard

Obituary

Catherine Moore Glenn, affectionately known as "Cootie", died peacefully at the age of 93 on Wednesday afternoon, November 6, 2024, at Elbert Memorial Hospital. A former resident of Athens Highway and Heard Drive, she had most recently been a resident of Magnolia Estates.

Marion Catherine Hendrick was born on the family farm in the Paoli Community of Comer, Madison County, GA, on September 22, 1931, the youngest of three children. Her parents, Joseph Hooker Hendrick and Fannie Lee Johnson Hendrick, and her two siblings, James Calvin "Dink" (Bessie) Hendricks and Dorothy Virginia "Dot" (Billie) Seagraves, preceded her in death. The family attended Meadow Baptist Church, which established Cootie's faith at a young age. She spoke often with reverence regarding her upbringing, family, and friends.

She graduated from Comer High School in 1948 and was elected homecoming queen by her peers that same year. Shortly thereafter, she met and married Charles David Moore from Elberton. Cootie and Charlie made Elberton their home where they raised two sons Charles Randall and Barry Eugene. She joined Doves Creek Baptist Church and later moved her letter to Antioch Baptist Church, where she served as a Sunday School teacher.

Cootie was a dedicated mother and house wife while the boys were young, raising chickens and maintaining the home while Charlie was an over-the-road truck driver. She then worked as a cashier at Winn-Dixie Super Market and later retired as a bookkeeper from Argo Trucking Company.

After Charlie's death in 2002, Cootie reconnected with classmate Samuel Everett Glenn, and they were married the following year. She also gained a daughter, Jennifer, and son, Jeffrey, both of whom she loved as her own. Sam and Catherine enjoyed many years of camping with the Dixie Drifters Camping Club, square dancing at various locations, and trips to Harrah's in Cherokee, NC.

Affectionately known as "Mama Cootie" or "Meme" to her family, she loved laughing, playing a game of cards, as well as telling a joke or pulling a prank - two things she proudly inherited from her mother. Her most recent favorite pastime was playing BINGO at Magnolia, something she looked forward to weekly. Catherine relished spending time with her family, and never missed an opportunity to shop or eat out.

Along with her parents and siblings, she is preceded in death by her husband of 52 years, Charlie; husband of 20 years, Sam; son, Barry, and bonus son, Jeffrey.

She is survived by her son, Randall and his wife Ann Edwards Moore of Elberton, GA; grandchildren: Charles Robert "Robbie" Moore of Sugar Hill, GA, William Chadwick "Chad" Moore of Elberton, GA, Abby Elizabeth Moore of Atlanta, GA, and Wesley David Moore of Buford, GA; great-grandchildren: Tanner Cole Moore of Elberton, GA and Colsen Chadwick Moore of Elberton, GA; and bonus daughter, Jennifer Glenn Ishee and her partner Steve Wise of Orlando, FL.