U.S. POSTAL SERVICE FOOD DRIVE

For over 20 years our church has participated in the Charlotte County Postal Service Food Drive. Residents are asked to place canned goods in sacks by their mailbox to be picked up next Sabbath by postal carriers or their representatives. Our Community Services, as well as other local charities, are the fortunate recipients of the donated food. In fact, our Community Services depends on this drive to help those in need year-round.

Volunteers are needed next Sabbath, May 11 from 10 a.m. to early afternoon. Drivers are needed to pick-up food along designated routes. Official Food Drive signs will be given out for car windows. Helpers are also needed in the PCAS gym to receive the bagged food. Be sure to wear comfortable shoes and clothes!

GRADUATION CELEBRATION tomorrow, Sunday, May 5, at 2 pm in the Grand Hall: Julia Chachere is graduating from Florida Gulf Coast University with her B.A. in Psychology. Please come and celebrate with us! Light refreshments will be served.
--Rosy Tennity and family.
