

Remembering Lodes...

Lodes Aligie Sherrin Jr., a beloved father, grandfather, brother, fun uncle aka "funcler", friend, and motorcycle enthusiast. Lodes, a proud Army veteran, passed away on April 3, 2024, in Ogallala, Nebraska.

Lodes was born on August 14, 1958, in Terrell, TX, to William Theodore Dollar and Letta Fern (Golightly) Dollar. After high school, Lodes served his country proudly in the US Army from June 1977 until June 1979.

Lodes worked diligently as a truck driver, or as he humorously referred to himself, a "steering wheel holder," for Total Transportation in Richland, Mississippi, for 10 years. His time spent on the open road gave him joy and fulfillment, though his true passion was his motorcycle, which he cherished above all else.

Throughout his life, Lodes found solace in riding his beloved bike, camping, and fishing, all while sharing these experiences with his family and friends. He particularly relished family reunions where he could watch Eddie and Steven play back when they were in diapers, and motorcycle trips to Luckenbach, Texas, with Harold, Lorie, Lonie, Mary, and Billy.

Lodes' most cherished accomplishment was his enduring love for his wife, Jane Sherrin, whom he finally married after 61 years of pursuing her. The couple married on July 11, 2020 at their home church, Holy Ghost Central in Alba, Texas.

He is preceded in death by his parents, William Theodore Dollar and Letta Fern (Golightly) Dollar; his beloved wife, Jane Sherrin; siblings, Raymond Parker, Debrah Williams, Letta Humphreys, Rose Sherrin, and Becky Butcher; three nieces, Justine McPherson, Terrie Paris, and Keisha McPherson; one nephew, Charles Newman; and best friend, Donald Dailey.

His legacy lives on through his four children, Charles Laird and fiancé Mary Rojas of Quitman, Brenda Laird and fiancé Wes Horn of Florida, Lorie Workman and husband Lonie of Mineola, and Lisa Gilley and husband Jimmie Sampson of Gainesville; four siblings, Leroy Dale Sherrin and wife Diana of Glendive, Montana, Terrie Dollar of Mineola, William Dollar and wife Neva of Tyler, and Vickie Anderson and fiancé Johnny Humphreys of Mineola; brother-in-law, Harold Butcher and girlfriend Barbara of Mineola; stepmother, Mama Jo; best friend aka brother from another mother, Reggie; 12 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.

GONE RIDING

*Don't cry for me, I still ride free
with the wind upon my face,
leather in black, the sun on my back,
a priceless gift of God's grace*

*I'll never grow old on these streets of gold,
chasing a majestic sunset,
and I still recall how I love you all,
sweet memories I won't forget.*

*And when your road ends, we'll meet again
inside the Pearly Gates,
and we'll laugh awhile and go ride for miles,
but for now, Heaven can wait.*

*When you do get here, don't shed one tear,
and think that I'm in hiding,
just search Heaven's shore, where engines roar,
and you'll find that I've gone riding.*

In Loving Memory of... LODES ALIGIE SHERRIN JR.
