The family of Angela R. McClelland wishes to extend our sincerest appreciation to our family and many friends for all acts of kindness shown during our moments of sorrow. The Lord has been good to us and we thank you for being there with us. May God forever bless and keep each of you is our prayer.

Dear Father, She was a pillar, a gift of love, a treasure to my soul. Always caring, ever kind and giving, even as she grew old. To me she was a lovely mum, to you a beloved child. I could only know her a little, you knew her spirit deep inside. While waves of grief break over me, crushing like a storm, You've greeted her with a warm embrace, and gently called her home. It's silent and so empty here, since she passed away, And yet she will hear celebration, called forever into grace. My memories are treasures now, I'll value & love I know she's taken all her riches, left the earth and won the gold! As time passes, I'll really never forget the hurt and pain she's warm, For now, she's free, restored and peaceful, in your arms & forevermore. I'll let each bulb, each bud, each bloom, sing to me of your love. For you reign in eternity, and I'll wait for your kingdom to come. Thank you for my special mum, I trust her to your warm embrace my love my heart keep her safe ...the good son

Reflections of Her Life

Angela McClelland was born August 27, 1959 in Kansas City, Missouri, birthed by Luanna McClelland and Mr. Diablo.

Angela received her education at Southeast High and obtained a job afterwards working as a bus monitor. She expanded her career and accepted employment for a local catering company.

Angela and Big Ron met and were married early in the 90's. Her greatest blessings came when she gave birth to her children, Jessica and Droveon. Angie loved her children more than life itself.

Angie enjoyed going to the casino, cooking and throwing big parties with her family. She loved spending time with her family, especially at the family gatherings. Everyone loved to be around Angie, her spirit was high, and energy was vibrant. She loved to dance and loved her old school jams.

Angie departed this life on Monday, September 12, 2022, joining her husband, Big Ron; parents, Luanna McClelland and Mr. Diablo; and sisters, Claudia McGee, Deborah Crockett and Nicole Baston all preceded her in death.

Angela McClelland leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Jessica McClelland and Droveon McClelland; stepdaughter, Laquita Thompson; daughter in-law, Anjolene Washington; siblings, Johnathan McClelland, Cynthia McClelland, Nevis McClelland, Hosea McClelland and Sandra McClelland; and a host of grandchildren, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
