

*The Sheaf of Wheat...
Symbol of Christian Faith*

The seeds of faith are sown in the human personality and grow into the mature faith of the Christian man or woman.

The sown seed must lose its life in order that it may develop and grow and multiply. So symbolically, a sheaf of wheat is used by Christians to mark the passing of a fellow Christian.

Death is not the end but the beginning of life eternal.

The mature grain in the sheaf is the direct symbol of the Resurrection -- the life beyond the grave, the fulfillment of the promises of Jesus Christ.

Angeline D. Nordick

Angeline Dorothy Miranowski was born February 10, 1926 to Anton and Lena (Schweip) Miranowski, in Kent, Minnesota. She grew up on the family farm, and attended District School #75, then she transferred to Little Falls, MN, to care for her sister, and finished her formal education.

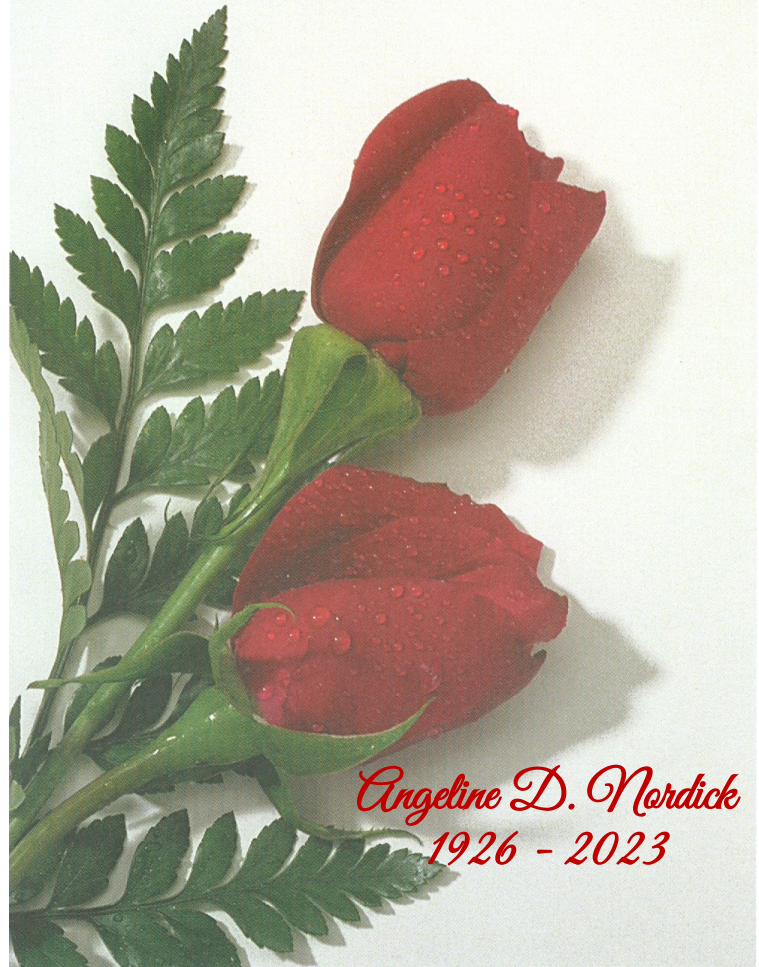

On August 11, 1948, Angeline was united in marriage to Leonard Nordick at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Breckenridge, MN. The couple made their home on a farm near Kent until 1955, then the couple moved to a farm on County Road 16, southwest of Rothsay, MN, where they lived until Leonard's passing.

Angeline was very active helping on the farm and raising their six children. During planting and harvest season, she took care of milking and feeding cattle. She enjoyed baking, and having friends over for coffee, quilting, and embroidering dish towels. Angeline was a member of the Fort Ransom Sodbusters Association, and made thousands of donuts for Sodbuster Days, for over 30 years.

Angeline is survived by her children, Gerald "Jerry" (Cathy) Nordick, Breckenridge, MN, Dorothy (Leon) Muehler, Wahpeton, ND, Darral (Lauren) Nordick, Rothsay, MN, Keith Nordick, Rothsay, MN, Sherri (Ardel) Kressin, Wahpeton, ND, Cindie (Bryan) Van Tassel, Breckenridge, MN; 8 grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Leonard; parents, Anton and Lena; sisters, Anastasia Terfehr, Ann Ehlert, Sr., Mary David, Marie Beyer; and brothers, Ray, Lawrence, Mark, and Jerome Miranowski.
