

The Measure of a Man

NOT—"How did he die?" But--"How did he live?"

NOT—"What did he gain?" But--"What did he give?"

These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

NOT—"What was his station?" But--"Had he a heart?"

AND—"How did he play his God-given part?
Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer,
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?"

NOT—"What was his church?" Nor--"What was his creed?"

BUT—"Had he befriended those really in need?"

NOT—"What did the sketch in the newspaper say?"

BUT—"How many were sorry when he passed away?"

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, If so we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
That anyone could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you so much.

In Loving Memory of Odell Haynes

Odell Haynes, affectionately known as Og, Paw Paw, and Daddy "O" was born in Florence, Texas to Arnold Albert Haynes and Mentory Ware.

Odell led a remarkable life characterized by hard work, dedication, and an unwavering commitment to his family. Despite completing his education up to the 7th grade, Odell never allowed that to hinder his success. He embarked on a fulfilling career working for Public Service and later Excel Energy as a Lead Pipe Fitter and Lining Apprentice, earning the respect and admiration of all who worked alongside him.

Odell's innate sense of discipline and strong work ethic shown through in every aspect of his life. He was known for his strict yet caring demeanor, always willing to impart wisdom and guidance to those around him. His penchant for punctuality and leadership made him a role model not only in his professional endeavors but also within his family circle.

Outside of work, Odell found joy in simple pleasures like hunting squirrels, fishing trips, and hosting vibrant family BBQs. He took pride in his well-kept appearance, often dressing sharply and exuding a pleasant fragrance wherever he went. His love for driving was evident in his fondness for his Lincoln and Eldorado vehicles.

Among his proudest accomplishments were receiving his Apprentice Certificate and maintaining excellent credit throughout his life.

Odell cherished moments spent with loved ones, particularly during memorable vacations and road trips to destinations like Texas, Las Vegas, and New Mexico. His love for the weekend was palpable, as he relished any opportunity to unwind with family and friends.

Odell is preceded in death by his wife, Kathleen Haynes; father, Arnold Albert Haynes; mother, Mentory Ware; and siblings, Edna Haynes, Wilford Haynes, Ella G. Haynes, and Lieutenant Haynes.

Odell is survived by a large family who will deeply miss him. His memory will be forever treasured by his children, Felicia Danette Haynes, Evangelist Hope Ann Brown, Odell Haynes Jr., Leroy Nelson, Michael Nelson, Leonard Howard Turner Jr.; siblings, Howard Haynes, Robert D. Haynes, R.L.
