

IN GRATEFUL APPRECIATION

The family of the late Jennie Segure wishes to express deep and heartfelt appreciation for your loving thoughtfulness and concern, including cards, flowers, phone calls, visits, your presence here today, and especially your prayers. May God bless each of you, and may His peace be with you always.

TO THOSE I LOVE AND THOSE WHO LOVED ME

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.

OBITUARY

Jennie Segure, daughter of (the late) Augustus Roundtree and Arrie Outz was born on November 25th, 1926, in Edgefield, South Carolina.

Jennie met then married the late Frank Segure. Jennie was a loving wife and mother to (the late) Roger Hill as well as a loving grandmother and great-grandmother.

Jennie was a devoted Nursing Assistant who first worked at University Hospital until she retired after an estimated 15 years of service. Shortly after retiring she served as a volunteer for the hospital system. She was a well-respected employee within the field and amongst her leaders. In her spare time, she also facilitated many gatherings with the senior citizens of Newark, New Jersey, which often entailed accompanying Mayor Marion Barry.

Jennie had a warm, observant, gentle demeanor with a caring personality and she enjoyed cooking, dressing to the nines, attending church regularly and family get-togethers.

On January 10, 2024, while in Uniondale, New York, Jennie Segure transitioned from this life to eternal life and joined the ancestral ranks of her parents, her husband Frank Segure, her son Roger Hill, one grandchild, Deshaya Collins; her brothers and sister: James Roundtree, William Roundtree, and Thelma Franklin. She now leaves to cherish fond memories her grandchildren: Rhonda Wiggins (Keith), of Maryland, and Monica Hill of Georgia; three great-grandchildren: Saleem Wiggins, Zakiya Wiggins and Serenity Hill; her caregivers, niece and nephew-in-law Lisa and John Walker, of Freeport, New York and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and loved ones.
