

Mom, no one has to tell me how lucky I am to have you, because I've known for a long time.
 When I think back over the years and remember all the special things you've done for me, I realize that you've not only a wonderful mom - You're also a unique woman.
 You're taught me so much about life and love and giving,
 and those lessons
 I'll never forget.
 You've shown me how to stand on my own in the world,
 and for that I'll always be grateful.
 So many things that have added to my happiness
 have been gifts from you.
 Maybe having a mom like you
 has spoiled me a bit, but don't ever think I don't appreciate and love you, because I do
 With all my heart.
 Love always Tammy

Harriet's Life Story

Harriet Brenda Malloy-Dickerson was born in Delair, New Jersey on August 11, 1946 to Hattie Roberts-Spearman and James Spearman. She leaves behind her husband of 43 years Ronald Dickerson and her beloved only child Tammy Michelle Malloy. She had three other siblings who are now deceased: Melvina Weathers, Jane Gould and Patricia (Bonnie) Jones.

She graduated from Pennsauken High School. After high school she was hired by RCA as an Electrical Technician. She left RCA and began working for Seaman's Electronics where she was also an Electrical Technician for many years. She later decided to pursue a CDL license and drove a long distance truck in California and many other states with her husband for more than ten years. After retiring from truck driving she took a part-time position with Walmart where she remained for many years.

She will be greatly missed by her best friend Louise. Every Saturday they fed the homeless at the food bank. She loved to cook and make a variety of recipes she learned while traveling around the country.

She leaves behind many nieces and nephew. She was very close with the Malloy family (her former in-laws) who will miss her kindness, her smile and beautiful personality.

Recessional

The love she Bestowed upon
My heart
Will never leave me
As she had to depart.
But you will not
Be left alone, Mom's waiting for
You at God's throne.

So sweet lady
I must say goodbye
And when you get there Tell my mom we said hi.

I'm so sad to let go
Of someone I was Proud to know.

From the day my life begun
She wasn't just my Aunt
She was also my friend.

Taught us things all Mothers would,
Right from wrong
Make your bad good.
