Kennie Lee German, Jr., age 82, resident of Somerville, Tennessee and husband of Ann Harris German, departed this life Wednesday morning, October 16, 2024 at his home.

Kennie was born October 8, 1942 in Somerville, the son of the late Kennie Lee German, Sr. and Dessie Margaret Cook German. He graduated from Fayette County High School and was employed at Somerville Light, Gas & Water Department for 33 years, starting as a lineman and working his way up to being superintendent before his retirement.

Kennie was a member of Morris Memorial Baptist Church in Moscow, Tennessee and was a charter member of Fayette County Rod & Gun Club that began in 1973 where he was a past president and was currently the vice-president. He was a member of the Somerville Masonic Lodge and an outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting and fishing.

Mr. German is survived by his wife, Ann Harris German; his daughter, Melissa Cannon (Randy); his son, Alan German (Beverly); two sisters, Peggy Howell and Debbie Porter (Clay); his brother, Bobby German (Suzie); four grandchildren, Brittany Snodgrass (Anthony), Abbey Gail Kruzan (Hayes), Kacey Cannon and Maggie Haynes (Drew); and three great-grandchildren, Owen Lee Hamilton, Allie Rae Hamilton and Conner Alan Snodgrass with one great-grandson on the way, Tripp Haynes.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded by his first wife, Patricia German and his sister, Cindy Rayburn.

The family requests that memorials be directed to St. Jude Memorial Giving, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105-9959 or Morris Memorial Baptist Church, 130 Third Street, Moscow, TN 38057.

Condolences may be left on our online guestbook at
