

In Loving Memory

Your Mother is always with you. She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street, she's the smell of bleach in your freshly laundered socks, she's the cool hand on your brow when you're not well. Your Mother lives inside your laughter. And she's crystallized in every teardrop. She's the place you came from, your first home; and she's the map you follow with every step you take. She's your first love and your first heartbreak, and nothing on earth can separate you. Not time, not space...not even death! May we never take our Mothers for granted.

Maydean Margean Dewald was born February 13, 1934 to Otto and Edna (Stoebner) Herr on a farm northeast of Tripp, SD. She grew up on the family farm helping with housework, herding cattle in the road side ditches and picking up cobs in the hog yard to heat the house in the winter. She completed eighth grade at Lakeside School District #40. Maydean worked for neighboring families, assisting housewives with household chores.

Maydean married Arlo A. Dewald June 12, 1955 in Tripp. She became Arlo's soulmate and partner, helping with all aspects of farming. She raised big gardens, canned vegetables and sewed clothes for herself and her children. She had a special talent for weaving beautiful rag rugs. She enjoyed baking, making the best cinnamon rolls in SE South Dakota. Maydean was a hard-working devoted Christian who was the matriarch of the bunch.
