

God's Garden

God looked around His garden

And found an empty place.

He then looked down upon the earth

And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you

And lifted you to rest;

God's garden must be beautiful,

He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering;

He knew you were in pain.

He knew that you would never

Get well on Earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough,

And the hills were hard to climb.

So He closed your weary eyelids

And whispered, "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you,

But you did not go alone-

For part of us went with you

The day God welcomed you home.

Betty Jane Myers was born December 29, 1931, to Dwight and Olga (Nelson) Myers in Langdon. She grew up and attended a rural country school around the Langdon area and helped on her family farm. She then helped the Solberg family where she met Julius Skjerva. She also worked as an aide at the Langdon hospital. She was united in marriage to Julius on April 17, 1955, in Langdon. They made their home and farmed in the Alsen area. She worked at the Nekoma missile site for a short time then the Stables Supper Club until she retired at the age of 80.

Betty was a strong woman of her faith. She was a member of the Zoar Lutheran Church in Hampden for many years. She had a love of gardening, canning, sewing and enjoyed baking and cooking. Everyone loved her lefse and what were known as “Betty’s buns”. She loved spending time with her children and grandchildren. She will always be remembered for her kind heart, sweet soul and hard work ethic.

Betty is survived by her children: Jerry of Devils Lake, ND, Greg of Jamestown, ND, Bryan of Devils Lake, ND, and Lori Ulliyott of Langdon, ND; grandchildren: Scott (Mindy) Skjerva, LaDonna (Kyle) Johnson, Derrick (friend Ashley) Skjerva, Geoffrey (friend Brittany) Skjerva, Peyton, Keaton and Jordyn Ulliyott; numerous great-grandchildren; and her siblings, Judy Cox and Carol (Ken) Nickerson. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Julius; sister Ruth Arens; and brothers: Richard, Judd and Melvin.

Betty passed away peacefully on August 27, 2022, at Maple Manor Care Center in Langdon at the age of 90.
