

In Remembrance of Karl Nelson Snow, Jr.

*“ . . . men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause,
 and do many things of their own free will,
 and bring to pass much righteousness . . . ”*

– Doctrine and Covenants 58:27

PALLBEARERS

- Grandsons -

Christopher Brighton Snow
 Andrew James Andersen
 Benjamin Rust Snow
 Christian Snow Houston
 Karl Ladell Andersen

Matthew Cutler Snow
 Howard Beman Snow
 Sean Patrick Houston
 Ian Daniel Willis

FUNERAL SERVICE

President Barney Madsen, Conducting

Family Prayer Melissa Snow Houston (Daughter)
 Organist Benjamin Rust Snow (Grandson)
 Chorister Emily Maude Snow Davis (Granddaughter)

Welcome President Barney Madsen
 Opening Hymn #136
“I Know That My Redeemer Lives”

Invocation Carolyn Houston Wilcox (Granddaughter)
 Life Sketch Karl Nelson Snow III (Son)
 Remarks Melissa Snow Houston (Daughter)
 Daniel Dain Snow (Son)
 Jeanmarie Snow Andersen (Daughter)
 Elisabeth Snow Willis (Daughter)
 Howard Hunter Snow (Son)

Intermediate Hymn #97
“Lead, Kindly Light”

Talk Steven E. Snow
 Closing Remarks President Barney Madsen
 Closing Hymn #86
“How Great Thou Art”

Benediction Eva Jean Willis (Granddaughter)

INTERMENT

Provo City Cemetery

Dedication of the Grave Daniel Dain Snow (Son)

From the acknowledgements in Karl's personal history:

"I acknowledge with deep gratitude my dear wife Donna Jean for her support and encouragement . . . and for being such an integral part of the story and of my life."

Karl Nelson Snow, Jr.

July 1, 1930 - August 28, 2024

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

Oak Hills Stake Center

Saturday, September 7, 2024 - 11:00 am