Tributes

Writing this took a lot because what could I say, about what you mean to me? From me being sick as a kid, spending countless nights in the toy room at the hospital just to be with me. All the love you gave us could never be replaced. I know, I will miss you. Form our 1 on 1 talks, to the smile you kept on your face. I will never forget the times we shared so I won't say goodbye but rather I can't wait to see you again. I Love You! Beautiful and will always think of you my first love tell my son, I miss him! And I love you, beautiful.

With love, your son Lavell Boyston

TO MY WIFE

*Still I hear those voices
From a time so long ago.
I see so many faces
But not the one I love and know.
I walk the same old streets,
Hear your footsteps just the same.
How I'd love to wake tomorrow
And walk with you once again.
Just to look into your eyes
And tell you about my day.
It's those little things I miss
Since the day you went away.
I now pray to God in heaven
To keep you in his care,
To comfort you and heal this hurt
Until the day I meet you there.*

Yours truly, Your Husband,
Melvin Smith

LETTER TO MY MOM IN HEAVEN

*They say there is a reason,
They say time will heal.
Neither time or reason
Will change the way i feel.
Gone are the days
We used to share.
But in my heart
You are always there.
The gates of memories
Will never close.
I miss you more than
Any body knows.
Love and miss you everyday.
Till we meet again.
Always & Forever*

Yours Truly,
Your Son, Jerome Barnes

There are many things I'll remember about my mom. How soft her hands were, How her eyes sparkled, How her smile lit up her entire face. I'll remember the hearty sound of her laugh, And the tone of her voice when Someone disappointed her. But most of all, I'll remember how I felt When she said to me, "I love you." That was the best feeling in the world, To know this very special woman Loved me with all her heart. Of all the memories that may dim In the coming years, That feeling is something I know I'll never forget. And I just want to say, I love you too, mom.

Your Daughter, Twinky
