

Eunice Smith Snoddy was born on November 13, 1929 in Hye, Texas in Blanco County. She was born to the late Clegg Smith and Florence Shipp Bradshaw. She was the descendant of a long-time pioneer family that dated back to the Independence of Texas. She married Robert Newell Smith in 1948 and he preceded her in death in 1973. She married W.D. (Pat) Snoddy in 1974. They lived in Gatesville where they raised their children, David, Michael, and Stacy. In those years, Pat and Eunice never missed a school event, music lesson, or other planned event for their sons. They were members of First Baptist Church of Gatesville, where they were choir members for many years. Pat preceded her in death in 2013.

She was also preceded in death by a son, David Keith Smith in 1970 and a sister, Lonie Ethridge in 2016.

Eunice is survived by a daughter, Patricia Smith of Austin; son, Stacy Smith of Austin; brother, T.J. Smith and wife, Maggie of Johnson City; grandson, Brian Burkle of Austin; and numerous nieces and nephews that were very close to her.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
