The Upper Room

A study of Jesus' last teaching session with his Disciples before his death and resurrection.

Imagine you have the chance to pass on your last words of advice to those you love the most before you leave them forever. This is why Jesus meets in the upper room and speaks with his disciples.

At the heart of what he says is

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me"

We are looking forward to welcoming George Howard as our speaker

George became a Christian through the work of the Methodist Church in the north of England. They taught and trained him to put his roots down into Christ and speak about his faith. He later served for 18 years with The Navigators, was then ordained into the Anglican ministry and worked for a further 25 years in three different Churches. He is now retired and lives in Suffolk with his wife Chris.
