

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me,
I will not be here to see,
That the sun will rise and find your eyes;
filled with tears for me,
But please know you're always in my heart,
and I will forever love you,
And know, each time you think of me,
I will be missing you too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
I need you to understand,
That an angel came, he called my name
and took me by the hand.
He told me it was time to go up to heaven far above,
And that I have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
I know that you will cry,
For all my life I'd always thought that I would never die.
I had so much life ahead of me;
I had so much to do,
It seems almost impossible that I was leaving you.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
I think of the good days, and the bad,
I thought of all our fights,
next to all the fun we had.
If I could have stayed,
just for a little while,
I would say I'd always be here,
and then I'd make you smile.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me
don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart.*

Her Story

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, Cynthia English. She was 63 years old.

Ms. English was born in Philadelphia to Robert and Joann English. She was very passionate about education, moving on to complete a bachelors and a masters degree. She worked as a preschool teacher before becoming a substitute teacher in the Philadelphia school system. She also dedicated her time with her son's organization "Only Positive Sacrifices".

Throughout her life, Cynthia was a dedicated youth worker, always seeking to empower and inspire the next generation. Her passion for education was undeniable, and she worked tirelessly to ensure that every child had access to quality learning opportunities. Ms. English was a pillar in her community, always lending a helping hand to those in need. Her love for others knew no bounds, and she touched the lives of countless individuals with her kindness and generosity.

A fearless believer, Cynthia lived her life according to her faith, finding strength and solace in her relationship with God. Despite facing numerous challenges in her life, she was a fighter until the very end. Her determination and resilience were unwavering, and she faced every obstacle with grace and courage.

In her professional life, Cynthia was a highly successful individual, achieving great things and leaving a lasting impact on all those she encountered.

Ms. English is survived by three sons, Tyrese English, Tyrone English, and Raymond Sims; three brothers, one sister, seven grandkids, and too many nieces and nephews to count. One of her quotes that she would say was "God bless the child that can hold his own". She taught them that no matter what, you have to be able to make the sacrifice and get it on your own. Ms. English will be deeply missed by all who knew her, but her legacy of love, compassion, and dedication to others will live on in the hearts of those she touched. Rest in peace, dear Cynthia English. You will always be remembered for the remarkable woman that you were.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
