

Renewal: Thorough examination of PPE for protection against falls from height

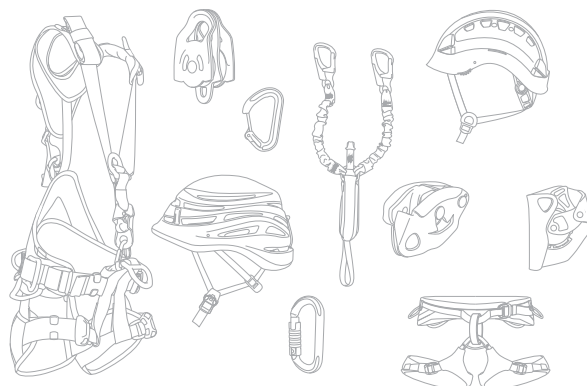

VAX 028

Maintain your ability and update your knowledge in order to thoroughly examine items of PPE (Personal Protective Equipment) for protection against falls from height in the role of a competent person.

The objectives of this module are:

- To thoroughly examine PPE using the Petzl protocol,
- To identify any defects and damage which would result in the item being removed from service,
- Complete inspection reports effectively.

Content

- Understanding the changes in legislation and the current requirements regarding the control of PPE for protection against falls from height.
- Presentation of technical evolutions regarding the construction of PPE, and how these may affect their periodic examinations.
- Exchanges and sharing of examination experiences with other students.
- Presentation and use of Petzl's examination protocol.
- Pre-use checks, special inspections, thorough examinations, signs and symptoms, significance of any defects, criteria for removal from service.

Audience

- Designated persons, those with a responsibility for carrying out thorough examinations of PPE, who have already successfully completed the Petzl Solution Module VAX 014 or VAX 003 – Thorough examination of PPE for protection against falls from height.

Pre-requirements

- Practical experience within the field of verticality, and with relevant fall protection equipment
- To have followed and successfully completed the Petzl Solution Module VAX 014 or VAX 003 – Thorough examination of PPE for protection against falls from height.

Learning support and certification

- Technical documents and module workbook.
- Certificate of attendance.
- Continual assessment and written test.

Logistics

- Place: Petzl Technical Institutes.
- Duration: 1 day (7 hours).