

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Student Pastor Daniel Wright

I often find that it is difficult to be humble in the midst of performing well in academics, athletics, and day to day accomplishments. Over the past week, I have been engaged in the words found in Matthew 5:5 saying, “blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth”. I’m sure most of us, if not all of us, understand what the core idea of being meek looks and feels like. But what earth will we be inheriting if our earth is so broken? This Sabbath, I invite you to open your hearts and your minds to receive the message that God has in store for us, helping us to realize the importance of meekness and humility.

I look forward to worshipping with you,
~Daniel Wright

Eastgate SDA Church Happenings!!

Up-date on Asher & Reagan Peterson

We very much appreciate the prayers, kind words, and excellent support from our friends and family in our season of stress. It means a lot to us knowing that you care. Regular transfusions of blood products have kept Asher fairly healthy. Even so, he is susceptible to viruses and infections, thus he is not able to go out in public or receive visitors. This is hard on a very social child, but we admire how well he is handling these restrictions as well as how well he is dealing with all of the medical tests and pricks he has had to go through. His family is also being very careful not to bring home any illnesses, so we may not get too close when we see you.

As many know we were planning to be in Seattle for Asher to receive a bone marrow transplant and Reagan was to be his donor. Due to new information from test results, Asher's medical team has advised us that a non-related bone marrow donor is better for his situation. Within days of starting the search, we learned that there are many potential donors in the database. It may take a few months longer than we expected to identify the best willing donor, but the doctors are still confident that we can restore Asher's health to the point that he is no longer dependent on weekly transfusions.

If you are interested in helping people with blood diseases similar to Asher's and are between the ages of 18 and 45, we encourage you to check out bethematch.org. It only takes a cheek swab to be added to the database of potential donors. It could change someone's life in the future. They are especially short on donors with genetic types other than those descended from northern European ancestry, but anybody could potentially be honored with the opportunity to donate life giving stem-cells. We also encourage people to donate blood to your local blood bank. We are very grateful for all of the donors who have provided Asher with the blood products he needs.

Richie and Timi Brower to conduct a Relationship Seminar at Eastgate SDA Feb. 7 & 8

Anger and Desire will be some of the discussion subjects as Richie and Timi Brower present a Relationship Seminar for us.

- Friday night will start at 6:30pm
- They will present for church
- There will be a potluck so bring some food and stay for the afternoon presentation!
- Sabbath afternoon will start at 2:00pm

Richie and Timi Brower to conduct a Relationship Seminar (continued)

Meet two of the most powerful relational allies any person can have. Desire powers all relationships. But how do relationships heal when desire goes unfulfilled, is rebuffed or rejected? Can anger be an ally? Really?

Who are these people?

Richie is a husband, and a daddy as well as an ordained pastor, and the chaplain of a local Christian radio station where he hosts a regular radio show. He loves working outside, especially getting dirty in the garden or cutting firewood. His interests include sustainable living, furniture building, growing and storing food as well as playing in the snow. He enjoys writing and teaching. He loves connecting scripture to life in practical ways.

Timari (Timi) brings together her experiences as a mom, wife and Christian therapist to illustrate how a personal God can heal our hurts and transform the relationships we value most. She holds a BA in Theology and a MA in Counseling. She enjoys quiet moments (because with three man-children, they are quite rare) time with girlfriends, reading, and most things that include a beach. They currently live in NE Washington with their three sons where they enjoy hiking, camping, swimming, gardening, snowshoeing, sledding, and exuberant life with boys.

Norma Maxted came to the Walla Walla Valley in 1963 when her husband Ed, took a job with Walla Walla College in the Transportation Dept. SDA Valley Community News & Events:

Fund Raider for Pastor Lloyd Perrin of the Milton SDA Church

This fundraiser is for Pastor Lloyd, who is the lead pastor of the SDA Milton church on highway 11.

On March 30, 2018 Pastor Lloyd fell gravely ill and was emergency airlifted to OSHU in Portland, Oregon. He was admitted with a bleeding grain tumor that mimicked a really bad stroke. This fund raiser will benefit Pastor Lloyd and allow for some of the extras needed for therapy, treatments and more.

Since his original diagnosis, he has just completed his final chemotherapy appointment today and received news that his cancer, a brain tumor, is in remission. The cancer that he was diagnosed with only gave him 2 months to live. With the huge amount of prayer from church members and word of mouth, he is now in remission. While that is fantastic news, we want to continue selling cookbooks to raise as much as we can because the insurance co-pays and bills are quite huge. So we are hoping for a successful run!

If you like collecting cookbooks, this group has a wonderful cookbook of over 400 vegetarian yummy recipes. It is on $20. Please call 509-714-4056 (leave a message) or email:

PerrinFamilyFundraiser@gmail.com

Note: Sharlene Tayler, a member of the Milton church and is coordinating this effort.
