Evergreen Cemetery

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be;

So He put his arms around you
and whispered,

“Come with Me.”

With tearful eyes we watched you suffer and saw you fade away.

Although we LOVED YOU DEARLY
we could not make you stay.

A GOLDEN HEART stopped beating hard working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us

He only takes the best!

Kathryn Lee Little, also known as Kathy, was born on May 12, 1946, in Alexandria, MN, the daughter of Harold and Cora Henrikson. At the age of 16, Kathy met George "Doogie" Little, at John Lee's Grocery Store, where they fell in love over a coke and a candy bar. They were united in marriage on November 16, 1963, at the Congregational Church in Alexandria. Together, they raised two children, Jacqueline Jean and Lonnie Lee in Alexandria, MN.

Throughout her life, Kathy held various jobs, including working as a meat cutter at Pete's County Market and Martinsons for around 17 years. She also spent 20 years in the office of a road construction company Allstate Paving/Diamond Surface and lent a hand to her daughter at Jackie J's, where she assisted in decorating for weddings and special events. Among her endeavors, Kathy most enjoyed working alongside Doogie at Little's Pilot Car.

Known for her exuberant spirit and infectious humor, Kathryn had a knack for bringing joy and laughter to all those around her.
