In Memory Of
Charlotte Raye Kinsey Waggoner
August 8, 1940 - April 9, 2022

Charlotte loved her family and was a devoted mother. Proverbs 31 defines her: "She is clothed with strength and dignity... She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue... Her children rise up and call her blessed... Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all... Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate."

As an artist, Charlotte had an expert eye and a gifted approach to oil and acrylic painting. She could also play the piano and organ beautifully. She had a knack for bringing joy, energy, and tenderness to every interaction. Charlotte was a talented, genuine, special soul. She had a rare and bright presence among us, and she will be greatly missed.

The family is grateful for all the time that God gifted us to spend with Charlotte. The world has lost a truly unique and beautiful person, and Heaven has gained a one of a kind angel.
