God Saw Him Getting Tired

God saw he was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around him
And whispered, "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched him suffer
And saw him fade away,
Although we loved him dearly,
We could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

In Appreciation

The Murphy family wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for every act of kindness shown by thoughts, words, and deeds during the passing of their loved one.

Reflections of Life

Edward James Murphy, affectionately known as “Cool Clyde”, was born June 20, 1951 in Camden, South Carolina to the late Martha and Henry Murphy. He entered into eternal rest on July 26, 2024, at Prisma Health Richland in Columbia, South Carolina.

Edward completed his education in Kershaw County public schools. He was united in holy matrimony to the late Carrie Murphy. During his working years, Edward was employed by the City of Columbia in the waterworks division.

Edward was a “Faithfull” member of the Reformed Universal Masonic Brotherhood and O.E.S. Daniel Lodge #1 in Elgin, South Carolina.

Edward was preceded in death by his wife, Carrie Murphy; his parents, Martha Murphy and Henry Murphy; two brothers, James Murphy, and Douglas Murphy.

Those left to cherish his memories are his two sons; Lenard Murphy, and Christopher Murphy; and his brother, Teddy (Josephine) Murphy.
