

LOVE is patient, love is kind...
it does not envy, it does not boast
it is not proud. It is not rude,
it is not self seeking, it is not easily angered,
it keeps no record of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil
but rejoices in TRUTH.
It always protects, always trusts,
always HOPES, always preserves.
LOVE NEVER FAILS

- 1 Corinthians 13: 4-8

What a comfort...

For us to know that our burden of grief
was shared by our family & friends.

Thank You

Don't think of her as gone away -
her JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN, life holds so many facets -
this earth is only one.
is a friend you can visit any time
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth
AND COMFORT
where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.

In the Hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost -
And she was loved so much.

Honor Loving Memory

Mrs. Jo Ann R. Cobo, age 91, of Washington Highway, Elberton, wife of the late Max J. Cobo, passed away on Monday, October 21, 2024, at Elbert Memorial Hospital. She passed away after suffering a heart attack on the previous Tuesday.

Born in Elberton on October 1, 1933, Betty Jo Ann Ray was a daughter of the late Claude Elbert Ray, Sr. and Eula Boswell Ray, and step-daughter of the late Frances Irene Gaines Ray. She was a graduate of Elberton High School. Jo Ann worked in the insurance department at the Elberton Granite Association as well as at Elbert Memorial Hospital, retiring from the emergency department as an admissions clerk. She also worked as the bookkeeper for the family business, Cobo Auto Sales.

Jo Ann was a lifelong member of First Baptist Church of Elberton and supported the church faithfully. She was an avid gardener who loved working in her flower gardens. Her favorite pastime was spoiling and playing with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Jo Ann was an avid sports fan, with a special love of the Atlanta Braves and Georgia Bulldogs. Even while sick, she enjoyed watching every minute of the UGA vs. Texas Longhorns game on Saturday, and rejoiced with a 30-15 victory for her beloved Bulldogs.

She was devoted to her family and was the best "Nana" to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Surviving are her sons: Carey Michael Cobo and Donald Steven "Donnie" Cobo (Jackie), all of Elberton; grandchildren: Christa Michelle Cobo of Athens, Ryan Maxwell Cobo (Katie) of Thomson, and Justin Daniel Cobo (Jessica) of Macon; great-grandchildren: Remington Kathryn Cobo, Maxwell Thomas Cobo, and Oliver William Cobo; sister, Linda Hawkins of Elberton; and numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

In addition to her parents and Max, her husband of 69 years and sweetheart of 75 years, she is preceded in death by her siblings: Annette Gaines, Doris Hudson, Henry Doyle Ray, Hazel Dean, Claude Ray, Jr., Norman Ray, Joyce Wilson, and David Ray.
