

In Loving Memory

MOM

You fed me well, you made me strong
You taught me to know right from wrong
You made me feel that I belong
You showed me the value of a song

You gave me life, you gave me love

You always knew the way I feel
You used the words you thought might heal
You convinced me it was no big deal
Your advice would keep it real

You gave me life, you gave me love

Broken hearts you liked to mend
It was not in your nature to offend
Birthday cards you'd always send
You knew the value of family and friends

You give me life, you give me love

You left me now, you've gone away
I'm left behind, I have to stay
So I'll just have to pray
I'll meet you again another day

You always had that 'special touch'
I loved you so very, very much

You gave me life, you gave me love
Please watch over me from above.

She attended rural country school and Menno High School. Lorraine was united in marriage to Elmer Baltzer on December 29, 1946 in Parker, South Dakota. She was a life-long farmer's wife and in later years worked in food service at the Scotland Good Samaritan Society and Landmann-Jungman Memorial Hospital as the dietary manager. She also owned and operated the Sportsman Cafe in Scotland for seven years.

Lorraine took pride in hosting family gatherings and cherished the time she spent with her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was a wonderful cook and enjoyed preparing her family's favorites.

Lorraine was a member of the Scotland Community Church and was active with the women's fellowship. Elmer was a WWII veteran and Lorraine was a member of the Paul Grosshuesch VFW Post #2296 women's auxiliary of Scotland and she took great pride in serving as a color bearer for many years.

Lorraine was a resident of the Scotland Good Samaritan Society where she passed away on Wednesday, September 8, 2021 at the age of 93 years.

Lorraine will live on in the hearts of her four children: Dale (Lori) Baltzer of Scotland, Peggy (Ron) Zink of Sterling, Colorado, James Baltzer of Madison and Jerry Baltzer of Scotland; eight grandchildren: Jason (Kristi) Baltzer, Ryan Kronaizl, Anthony Baltzer, Nicole (Jerry) Caton, Andrea (Aaron) Legband, Ashley (Frank) Doerksen, Cody (Stacy) Zink, and Haley (Tyler) Vandebark; 13 great-grandchildren; daughter-in-law Linda Ulmer; sister Marge Sorenson; sister-in-law Betty Guthmiller, and numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents Albert and Mabel Guthmiller, she was preceded in death by Elmer her husband of 66 years; her son Terry Baltzer; her daughter Kathy (Baltzer) Kronaizl; one sister Irene Imig; three brothers: Mervin, Emmett (Marguerite), and Laverne (Marge) Guthmiller; and in-laws Heins Heinsohn and Lorrel Sorenson, Eugene (Elda), Gilbert (Bertha), Rueben (Ruth) Baltzer, and Oliva (Albert) Hoff.
