

I Live On

I died but I did not leave you.
I am here, and have not gone.
Though my spirit left my body
don't be sad, for I live on.
My love is all around you.
Can you feel it? Can you see it?
That gentle breeze upon your face
is not the wind...but me.
I'm the song of a bluebird
when spring is in the air.
I'm the rose in a garden,
You can find me everywhere.
I'm a raindrop and a rainbow.
I'm the ocean's waves of blue;
everywhere you go you'll know,
I live on, loving you.

In Loving Memory of...
