OBITUARY

Ms. Stephanie P. Miller, 63, peacefully transitioned from this world on July 28th at 2:35 a.m. near her native city of Savannah, Georgia.

The Early Days: Stephanie was born in Savannah, Georgia, on August 6th, 1959. She was the sixth and youngest sibling of Gilbert Miller Jr. and Bessye Mike Miller. Her early school experience was through the Seventh Day Adventist Church, where she completed kindergarten and first grade.

Her grade school education was at Spencer Elementary. As a child of desegregation, Stephanie was assigned to Shuman Jr. High School and then went on to Savannah High School. Stephanie always excelled in her academic classes. She enjoyed reading and playing mentally challenging games.

Her Collegiate Educations: Bachelor of Science and Masters of Public Administration at Savannah State University

Profession: Her career started with the Chatham County Department of Social Services, where she excelled as a Senior Caseworker and was heavily involved in managing high-risk children. Her evaluations helped the courts decide parental rights, child removal from the home, family reunifications, and more.

In 1996, Stephanie moved to North Carolina with Family. She continued her career in the Protection of high-risk children before returning to Savannah.

She was preceded in death by her father, Gilbert Miller Jr., and mother, Bessye, Mike, and her brother, Gilbert Miller III.

Left to mourn her passing: Her Siblings: brother, Alfred Kenneth Miller of Hardeeville, SC, sister, Penelope Miller Jones, of Savannah, Ga. brother Glenn Anderson Miller of Arlington, Texas, brother Ivan Mario (Maxine) Miller, of Richmond Hill, Ga., A host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.”

Luke 14:27

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

FAMILY'S HEART

Whispering tears, sealed inside our forgotten years,
Woes and regrets, failing the forgiveness test
Arise on this day, share gifts with the world always
Bruised Family's Heart healed in a day

Whispering tears, sealed inside our forgotten years,
Tragedies blended and mended on the wings of our love
Welcome Harmony, shower comfort into the ears of our fears
Family's Heart bows to earnest prayers.

Remember the beginnings, powered by Mother's words
Challenge your mind, reach back in time, trust she'll be heard,
Come Grace, at last, dissolve mistakes and failures of the past
Treasured chimes, rings at last, Family's Heart is up for the task!
