Quise Life Story

MarQuise Gardale Davis known to many as “Quise” 34, of Youngstown, Ohio , quietly transitioned this earthly life to his heavenly reward on Monday, May 13, 2024

Quise was born May 17, 1989 in Youngstown Ohio a son of Alan (Davis) Jennings and Clarencia (Humphrey) Reese.

He was a 2007 graduate of The Rayen High School where he was a member of the band and played the trombone where he played frontline. He was also a member of the Youngstown Connection.

His spirit and soul was infectious with a vibe and energy that forced many to flock to him with his comedic commentary and a flare of animation with a sharp tongue. He was as real as real could possible be. MarQuise brightened the room with his smile style, and swag. To know him was to love him.

He spent his time caring for his “dogaughter” Twinkle. She traveled with him and was trained to know many special tricks. He had a wonderful sense of style dressing to nines all the time. After graduating, he attended Youngstown State University, then moved to Pittsburgh for period of time.

Possessing his love for music MarQuise enjoyed singing which brought him great joy. He would spend countless time with his siblings, cousins, friends, and family, singing and making them laugh with his wonderful sense of humor.

He had a very special relationship with his beautiful aunts, Marlo Carter , Laurie Davis and Tiffany Moore. He also had lifelong friendships with Dwone Little Jaason Weatherly and his first friend of his life Briana Carter. He loved his family and friends and will be greatly missed.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories, his parents, Alan Jennings and Clarencia (Antonio) Reese; his brothers, Christian Davis, J’Mon Jennings, Ladale Jennings and Devonte Davis; his sisters, Shayla Crockett, Predijah Jennings and Ariante Vargas, and a host of other close family and friends.

Now seated among a great crowd of witnesses, he was welcomed in heaven by his grandparents, Robert Jennings, Lillian Davis and Clarence and Marilyn Humphrey his uncles, Benny and James Davis; and he was there to welcome his brother, Brandon.

BDave Life Story

Brandon Maurice Davis 31, of Youngstown, Ohio transitioned this life on Sunday, May 19, 2024.

Brandon known by many as “BDave” was born July 30, 1992 in Youngstown, Ohio to parents Alan (Davis) Jennings and Clarencia (Humphrey) Reese.

He graduated in 2011 from Chaney High School, where he had visions of being a teacher or principal. He also determined that he had a desire for mentoring and guiding youth with challenging backgrounds.

Brandon was loved and respected by all who crossed paths with him. He was passionate about his family and friends, always expressing his love and giving the best sound advice. He was enjoyable and easy to converse with and wise beyond his years.

After high school, Brandon was determined to work with youth starting employment at the Red Zone with city children, which he absolutely loved. He later continued his Passion o help and care for others, which lead him to peruse a career in nursing and obtaining a state license working in an array of nursing homes.

Brandon was able to show and give love to anyone he came into connection with. He had a real passion for helping people. He was one of the most supportive and reliable people you could have in your corner. His straightforward and to the point personality made him valuable and irreplaceable. His smile was warm and infectious and his laugh would permeate the room.

Brandon never missed a chance to make sure everyone that was important to him knew how much he loved them. He was one of the strongest people and was carrying everyone’s burden for them.

He was an amazing uncle to his nieces and nephews who affectionately called him BB. BDave very special relationship with his beautiful aunts, Marlo Carter, Laurie Davis and Tiffany Moore. His spirit and contribution to the universe will be terribly missed.

He leaves to carry out his beautiful soul, his parents, Alan Jennings and Clarencia (Antonio) Reese; his brothers, Christian Davis, J’Mon Jennings, Ladale Jennings, Devonte Davis and Antonio Gayles; his sisters, Shayla Crockett, Predijah Jennings and Ariante Vargas, and a host of other close family and friends.

He was welcomed into his new heavenly home by, his grandparents, Robert Jennings, Lillian Davis and Clarence and Marilyn Humphrey; his uncles, Benny and James Davis and by his brother, MarQuise , who was recently welcomed into heaven.
