

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Pastor Eric

One of the regular things my family did when I was a child was go birdwatching. I remember one Sabbath afternoon my dad called the "bird report" to find out if there were any rare bird sightings in the area.

There was!

I don't remember why kind of duck it was but it was something that a storm had blown in from Asia.

We jumped in the car and drove down to the where the avian had been sighted. As we arrived we quickly realized that we were not the only ones who had heard about this rare bird. The shore of the lake was lined with birders. Spotting scopes and binoculars pressed against eyes, bird books opened to relevant pages, all of us were straining to get a glimpse of the longed-for fowl.

Jesus tells a story about a father who did the same thing. Day after day he stood at the end of the drive, straining to see his lost boy. If he had owned binoculars they would have been plastered against his eyes, longing for a first glimpse of his returning son.

This week we conclude our three-part series about stories Jesus told about finding lost things entitled "When Heaven Rejoices."

I am looking forward to worshipping with you!

~Pastor Eric

This Weekend! October 20, Pastor Sayler concludes the "When Heaven Rejoices" series. Following the church service we will host a special Pastor Appreciation Potluck meal. Join us and bring a vegetarian dish that will feed six people or more. Dessert will be provided! Come at 9:30am and spend an hour with us in bible study in small groups. Children's age appropriate classes too! Then stay from 10:45am – 12:15pm as we meet in the sanctuary for worship service.

Next Weekend: October 27, Guest Speakers who were once a part of our fellowship will present a report on the mission work they have been involved with. Church service will be followed by a fellowship potluck dinner. Please bring a dish that will serve 6 people or more if you plan to attend.
