Desert Lessons

We could study the desert all year and not run out of things to learn, but we have to move on! We'll have our last desert lessons this week. Our last animal will be the camel. We'll also study landforms, sand, and erosion.

This Week -

We're having two special presentations this week. On Monday it is "Maria Tallchief: Woman of Two Worlds" and the other is on Thursday by Alex Lau, our new salmon educator. He'll be presenting our first Zoom salmon lesson.

Memory Verse

Our memory verse this week is: "The Lord is faithful and will keep all His promises. He is loving toward everything he has made." Psalm 145:13
