Jalen's Legacy

1997-2022

Jalen De'won Williams was born March 5th 1997 to Sabrina Thompson and Joseph Williams in Houston, Texas. He was the first grandson of Susan Webb & Michael Webb and the first-born son. Jalen became the leader of the pack to 1 younger sister Mariah (Riah) and 2 younger brothers Jeremiah (Bt), and Donald (Nana).

Growing up this young man was the biggest goof ball anyone could have ever met. He was the biggest class clown at every school and every grade level. As he continued to grow, he found a passion in football which motivated him to get his act together because he knew it was a no pass no play! He got through all his years of school and graduated J. Frank Dobie High School as part of the class of 2016. He was one happy person.

Around 2019, he met a young lady Vanessa Sustaita who had a 5 month old baby boy who was named Jayden Sustaita. The first person he called was his sister "Riah can you watch my girlfriend's baby while we go to the movies," and from that day forth, that was his child for sure and the family accepted it very well. Jalen took him in as his OWN child and did a GREAT JOB that is forever his big boy.

Jalen was very much a great person and known across the world from family and friends all the way to strangers. He was the peacemaker around everyone, never known to be confrontational or problematic at all. Ultimately he just wanted everyone to be happy just as much as he was.

He worked many, many jobs and if anyone knew him they knew for sure he had different jobs as much as he posted it on Snapchat; until he found love in this one job called PowerVac America. What was supposed to be a temporary job turned into a permanent full-time position given the great reputation he set for himself as the youngest employee there. They loved him as a coworker a son and a little brother he definitely loved his job.

Jalen will forever be missed by everyone he interacting with during his short time on Earth. We all wish things could have went differently for sure he had so many people to rely on at any moment but he is definitely in a better place watching over us all he is now at rest while we all handle the rest.

Tributes of Love

Son this a hard one. This is taking a lot of time for me to type because it's so unreal this is not something I never not once in my life thought I'd have to do. No mother should ever have to bury their child, however you've left me with my grandchildren that will forever remind me of you and I am eternally grateful for. Baby boy you left me far too early before your time, you was my crazy child that was always confused and lost about everything and I would just say "call your sister". You left mama broken...really broken...but I know you're in a better place resting peacefully I will miss you calling EVERYDAY about something silly that just make me shake my head but you was amazing my love. - Momma love you always

This is so hard because my nephew was one of the best things to happen to this family. There's nothing bad you can say about him. I've been with him since he was born & I will never forget him. If you needed him, he was there for you. He was a big hearted person; as a matter of fact, I owe him my life because he is the Reason I have the chance to be in my kids' life again. HE made it happen. HE told me, "Uncle, don't worry about it, I got you," and he did. So in Honor of that, I got YOU now Nephew & I will make sure your boys will never go without anything as long as I got Breath in my body. I promise. I know that's the best way I can pay you back, Love you for life. -Uncle Pookie

Big bro, I wish you could be here with me forever. Thank you for always picking up when I called or needed something. I know I could always count on you to be my right hand man for sure if only we can take one last ride I'd sit down this time and listen. This a tough one to handle, this one hit me hard bro you kept me laughing at the dumbest things you would do and say even on my hardest day I knew you would make me laugh you always thought you could beat me in the game which that was not a fact but I wish you peace, rest in paradise, I love you dude.

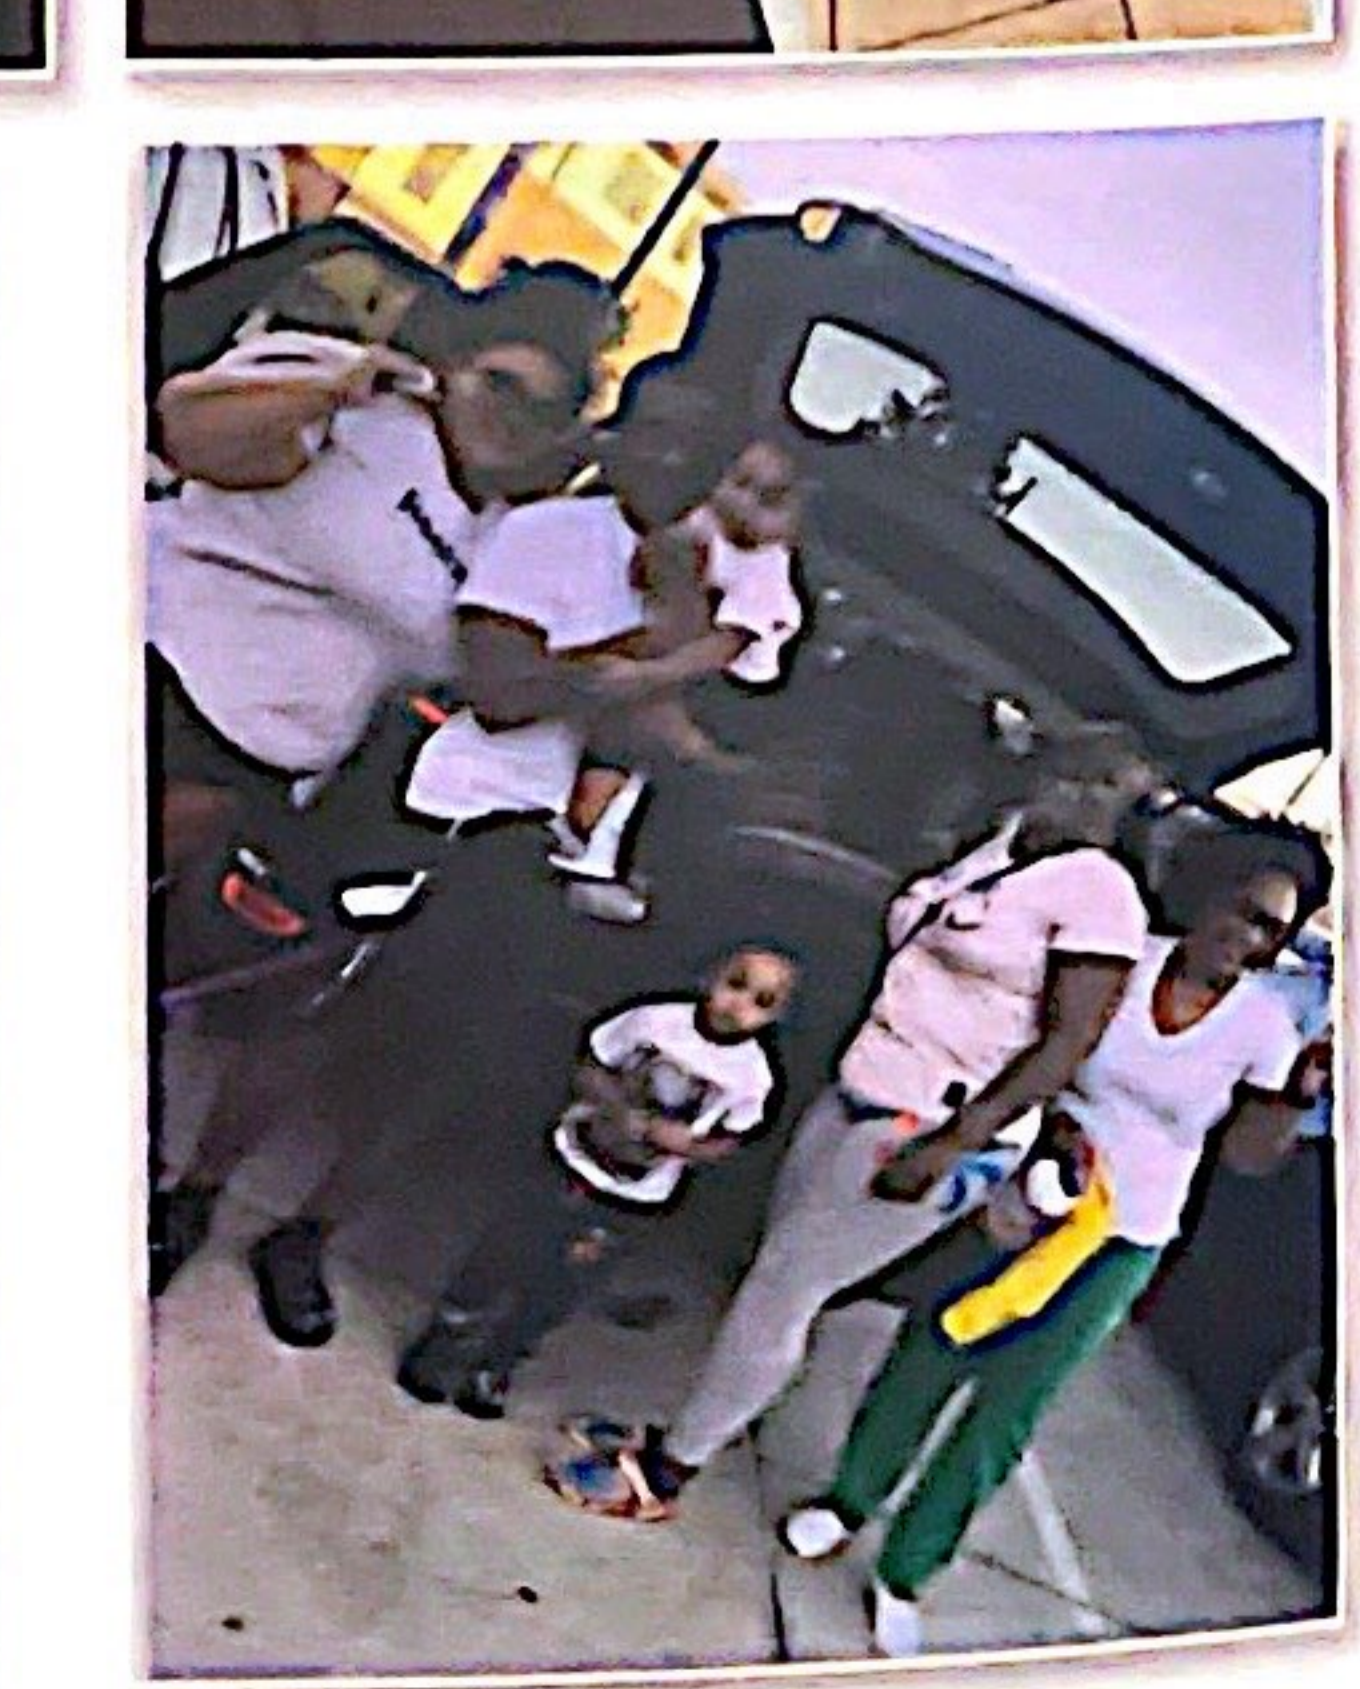

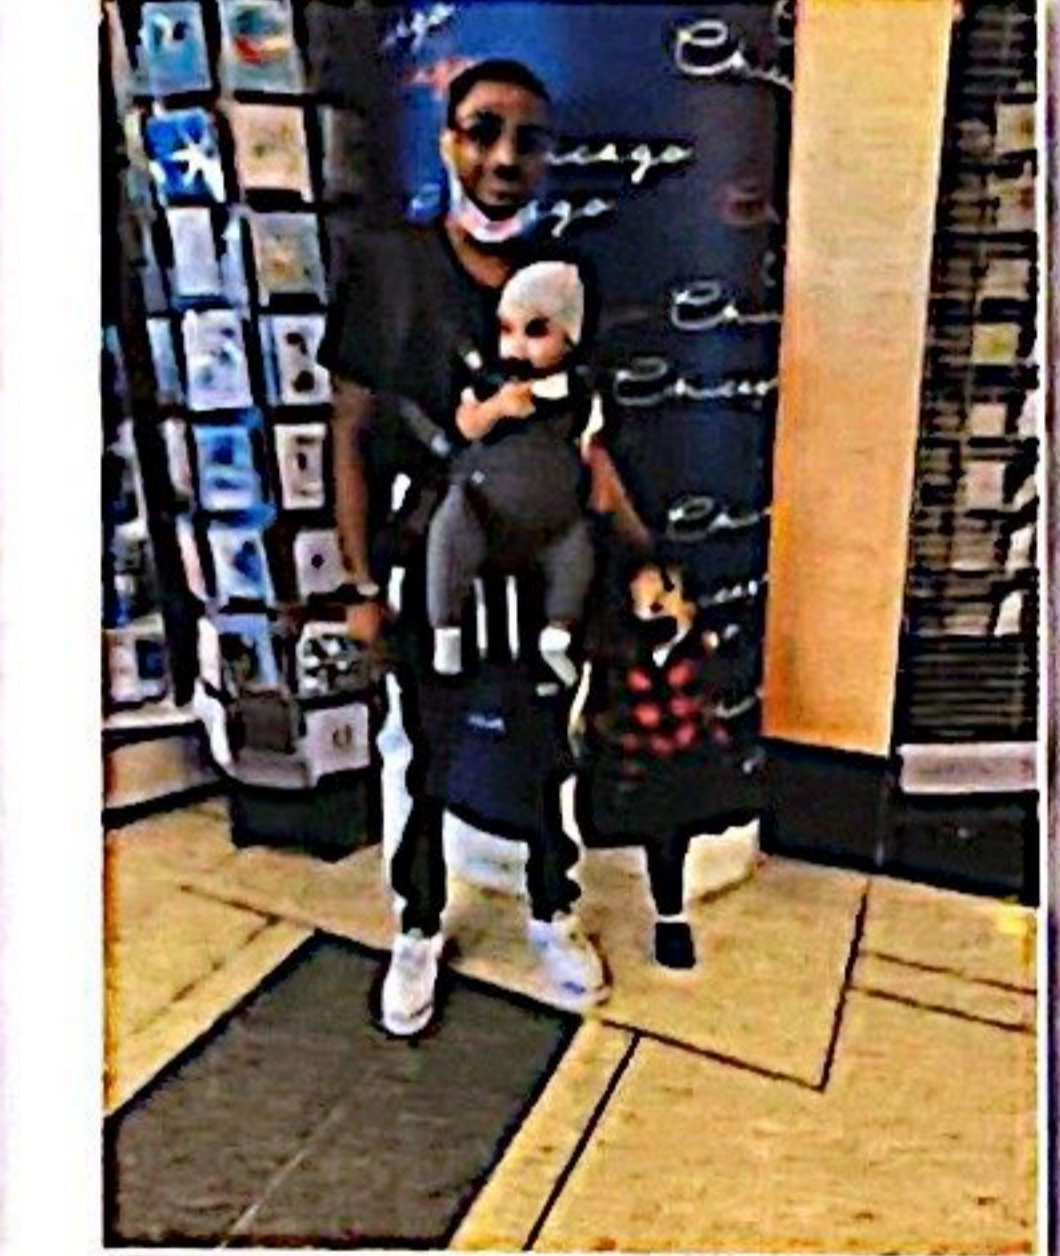

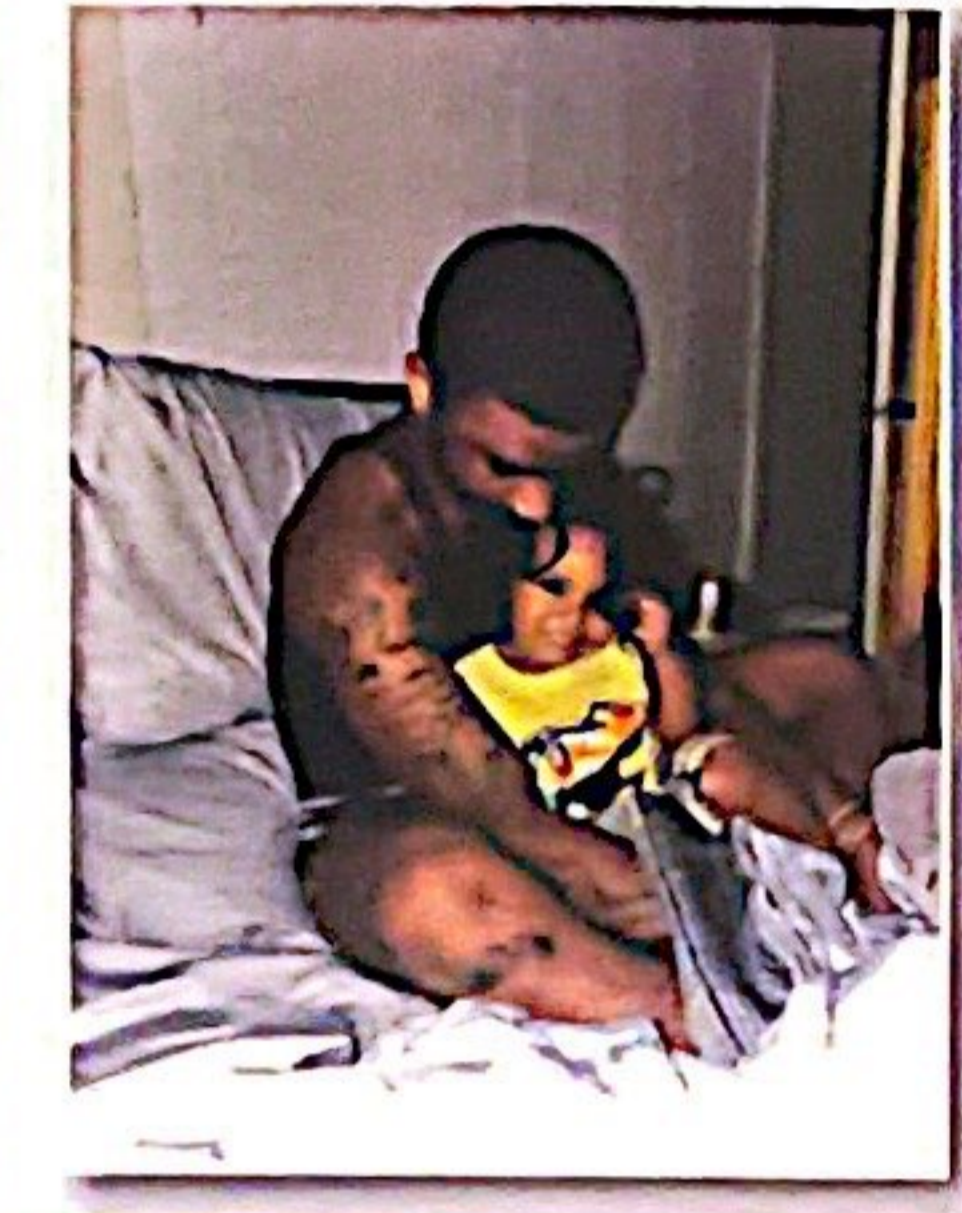

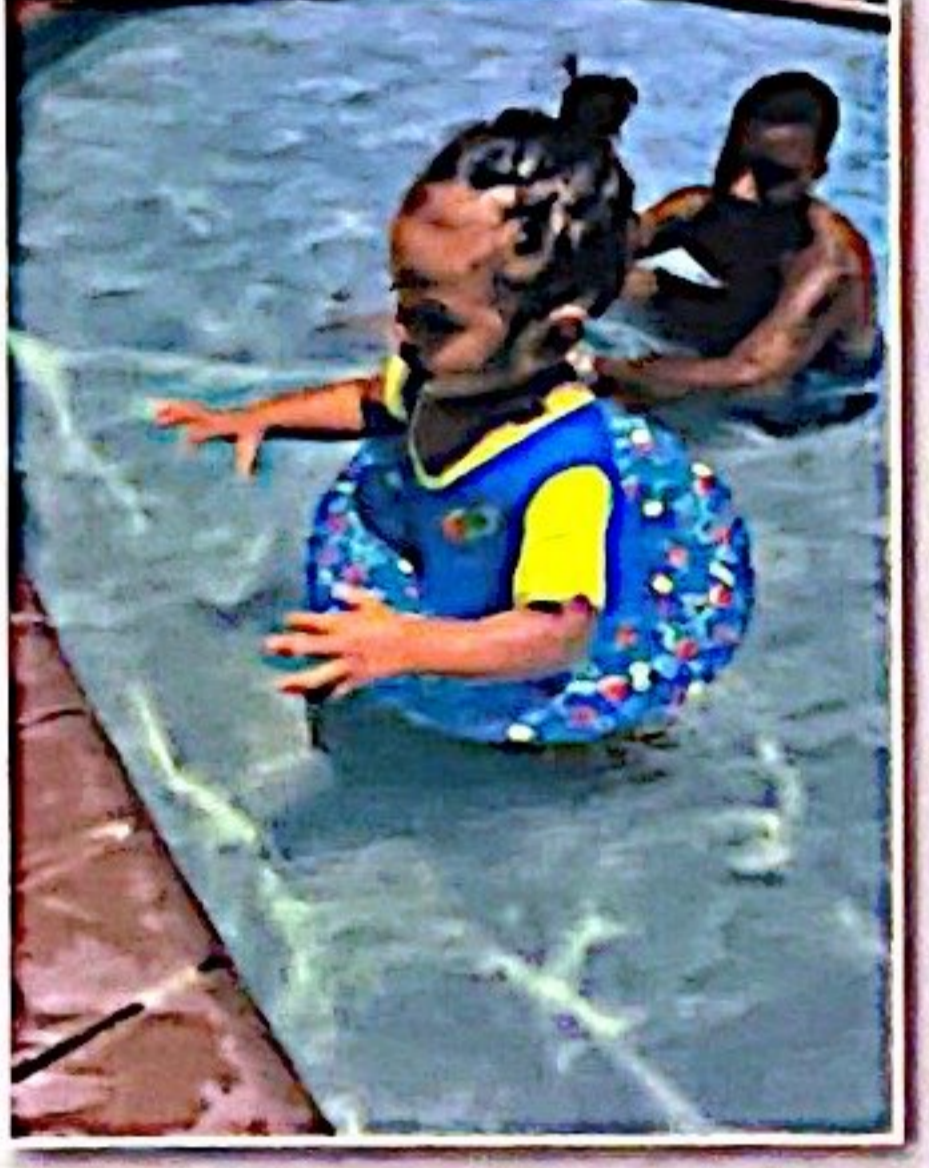

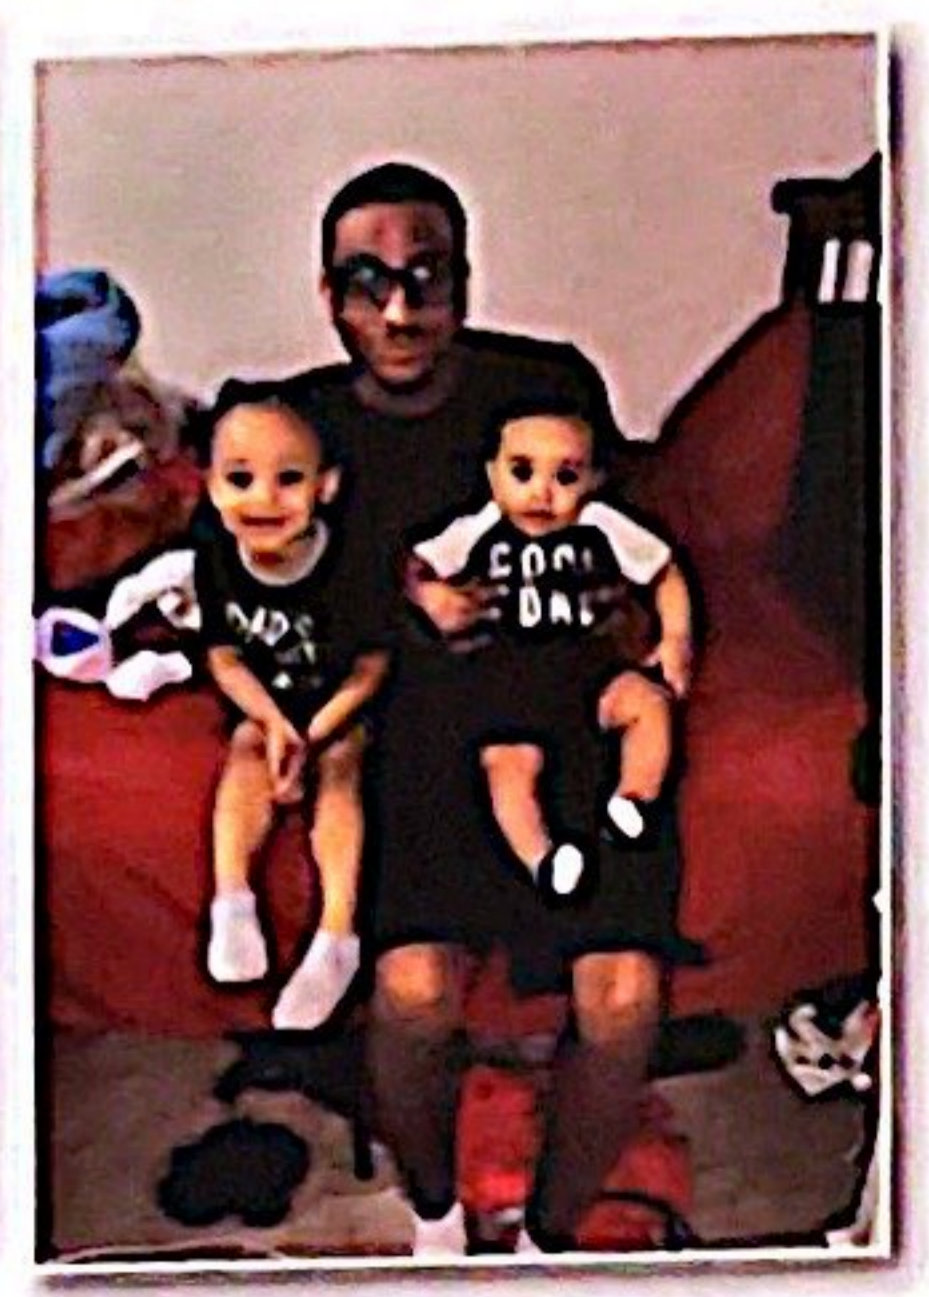

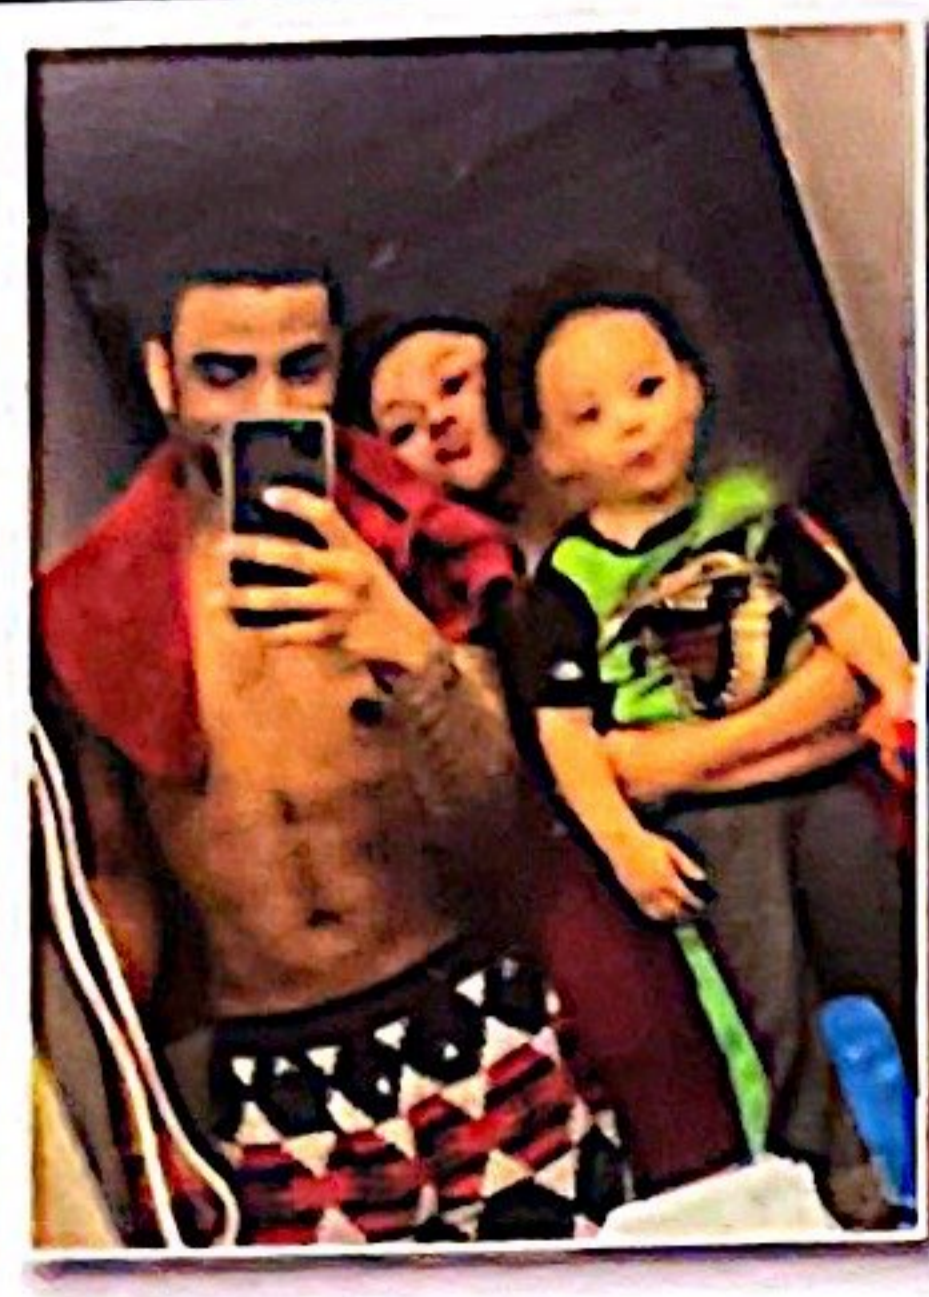

Baby Brother "AKA" NANA

Grandson I knew you was going to be a great guy since the day you was born; you was my first grandson you put your all in everything for everyone it's going to be hard not to hear your voice anymore but I know your in a better place I will never forget anything about you you did anything nanny wanted I know one thing you hated my wigs "nanny no take that off get braids I'll pay no take that off your head" nanny will be strong but this hit hard grand baby I love you forever and always. -Nanny

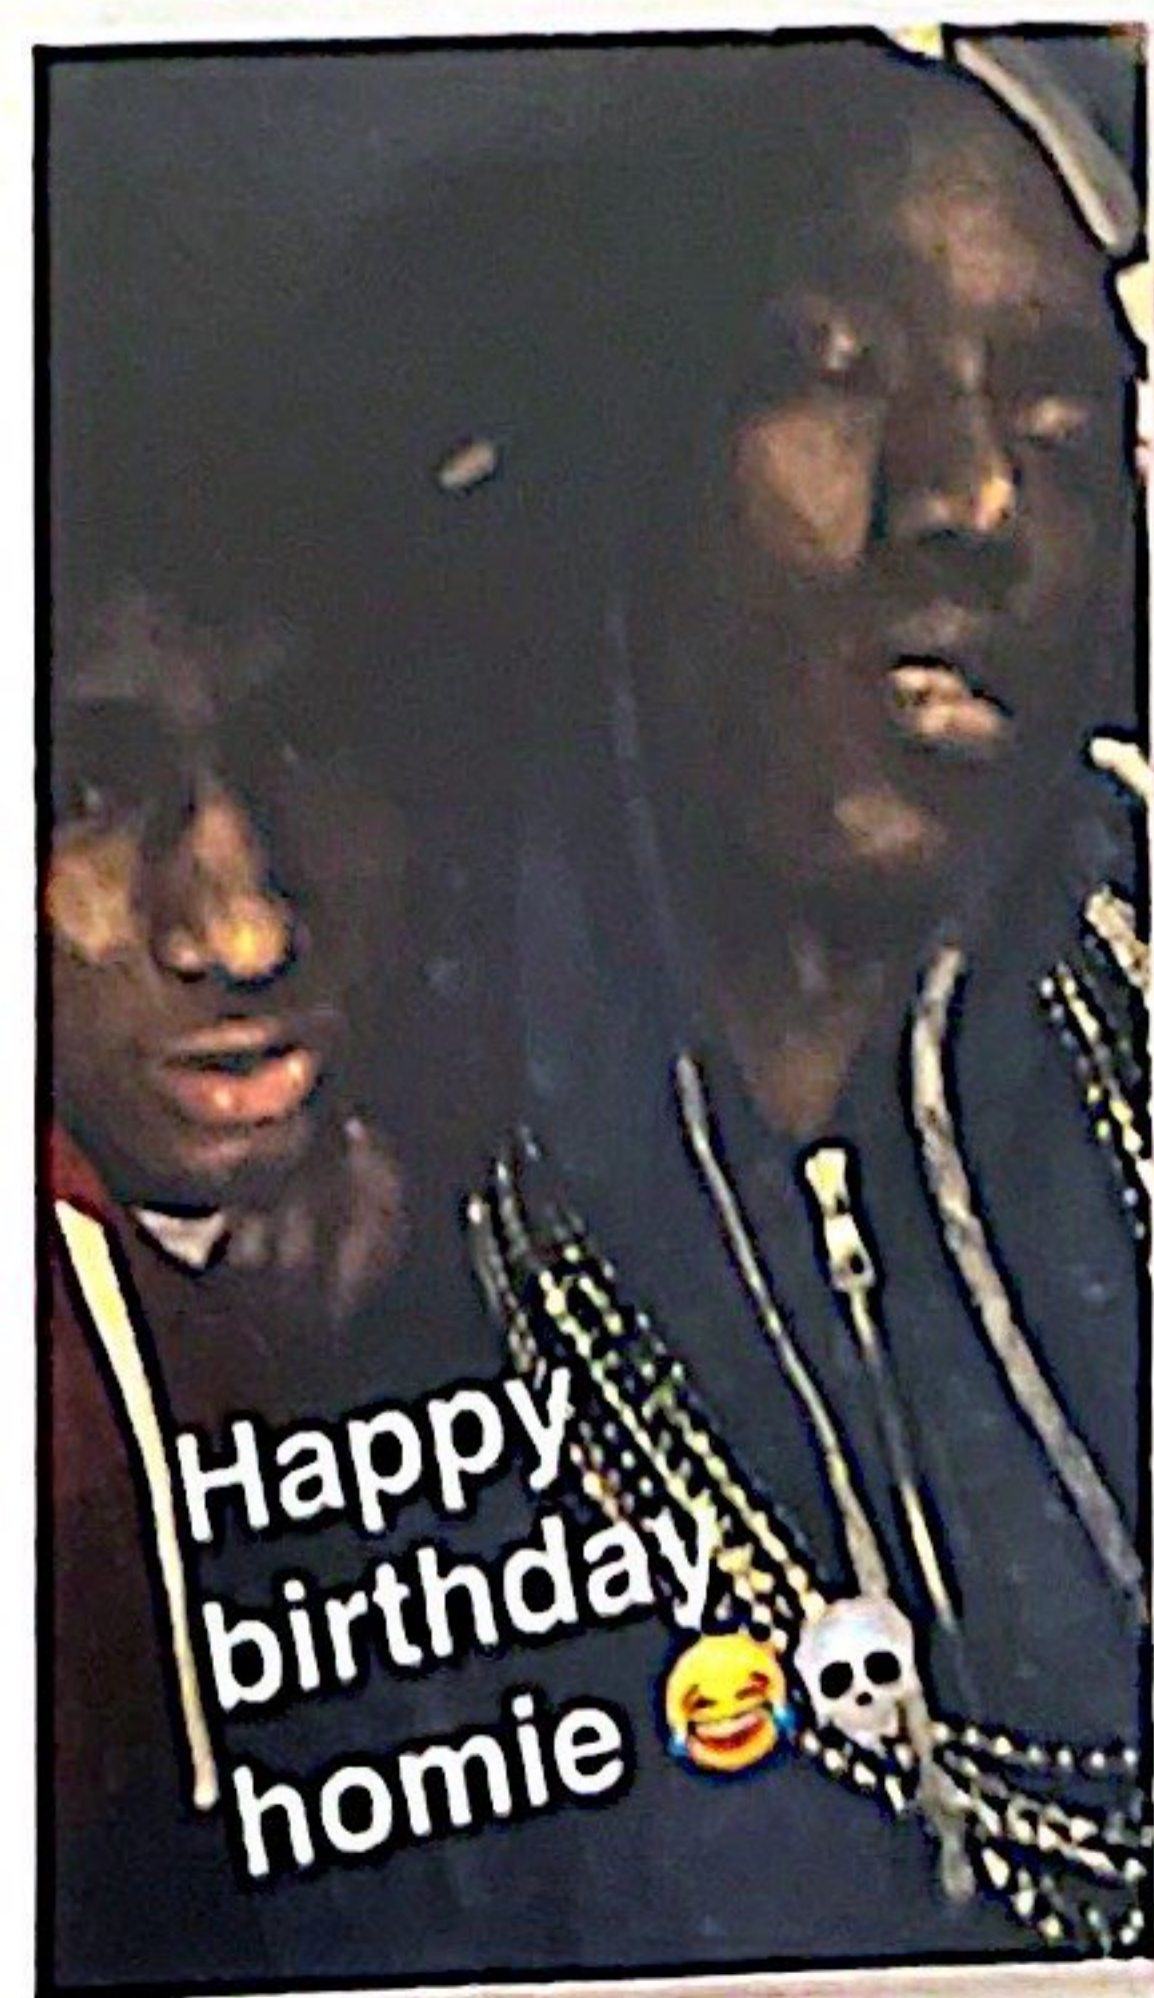

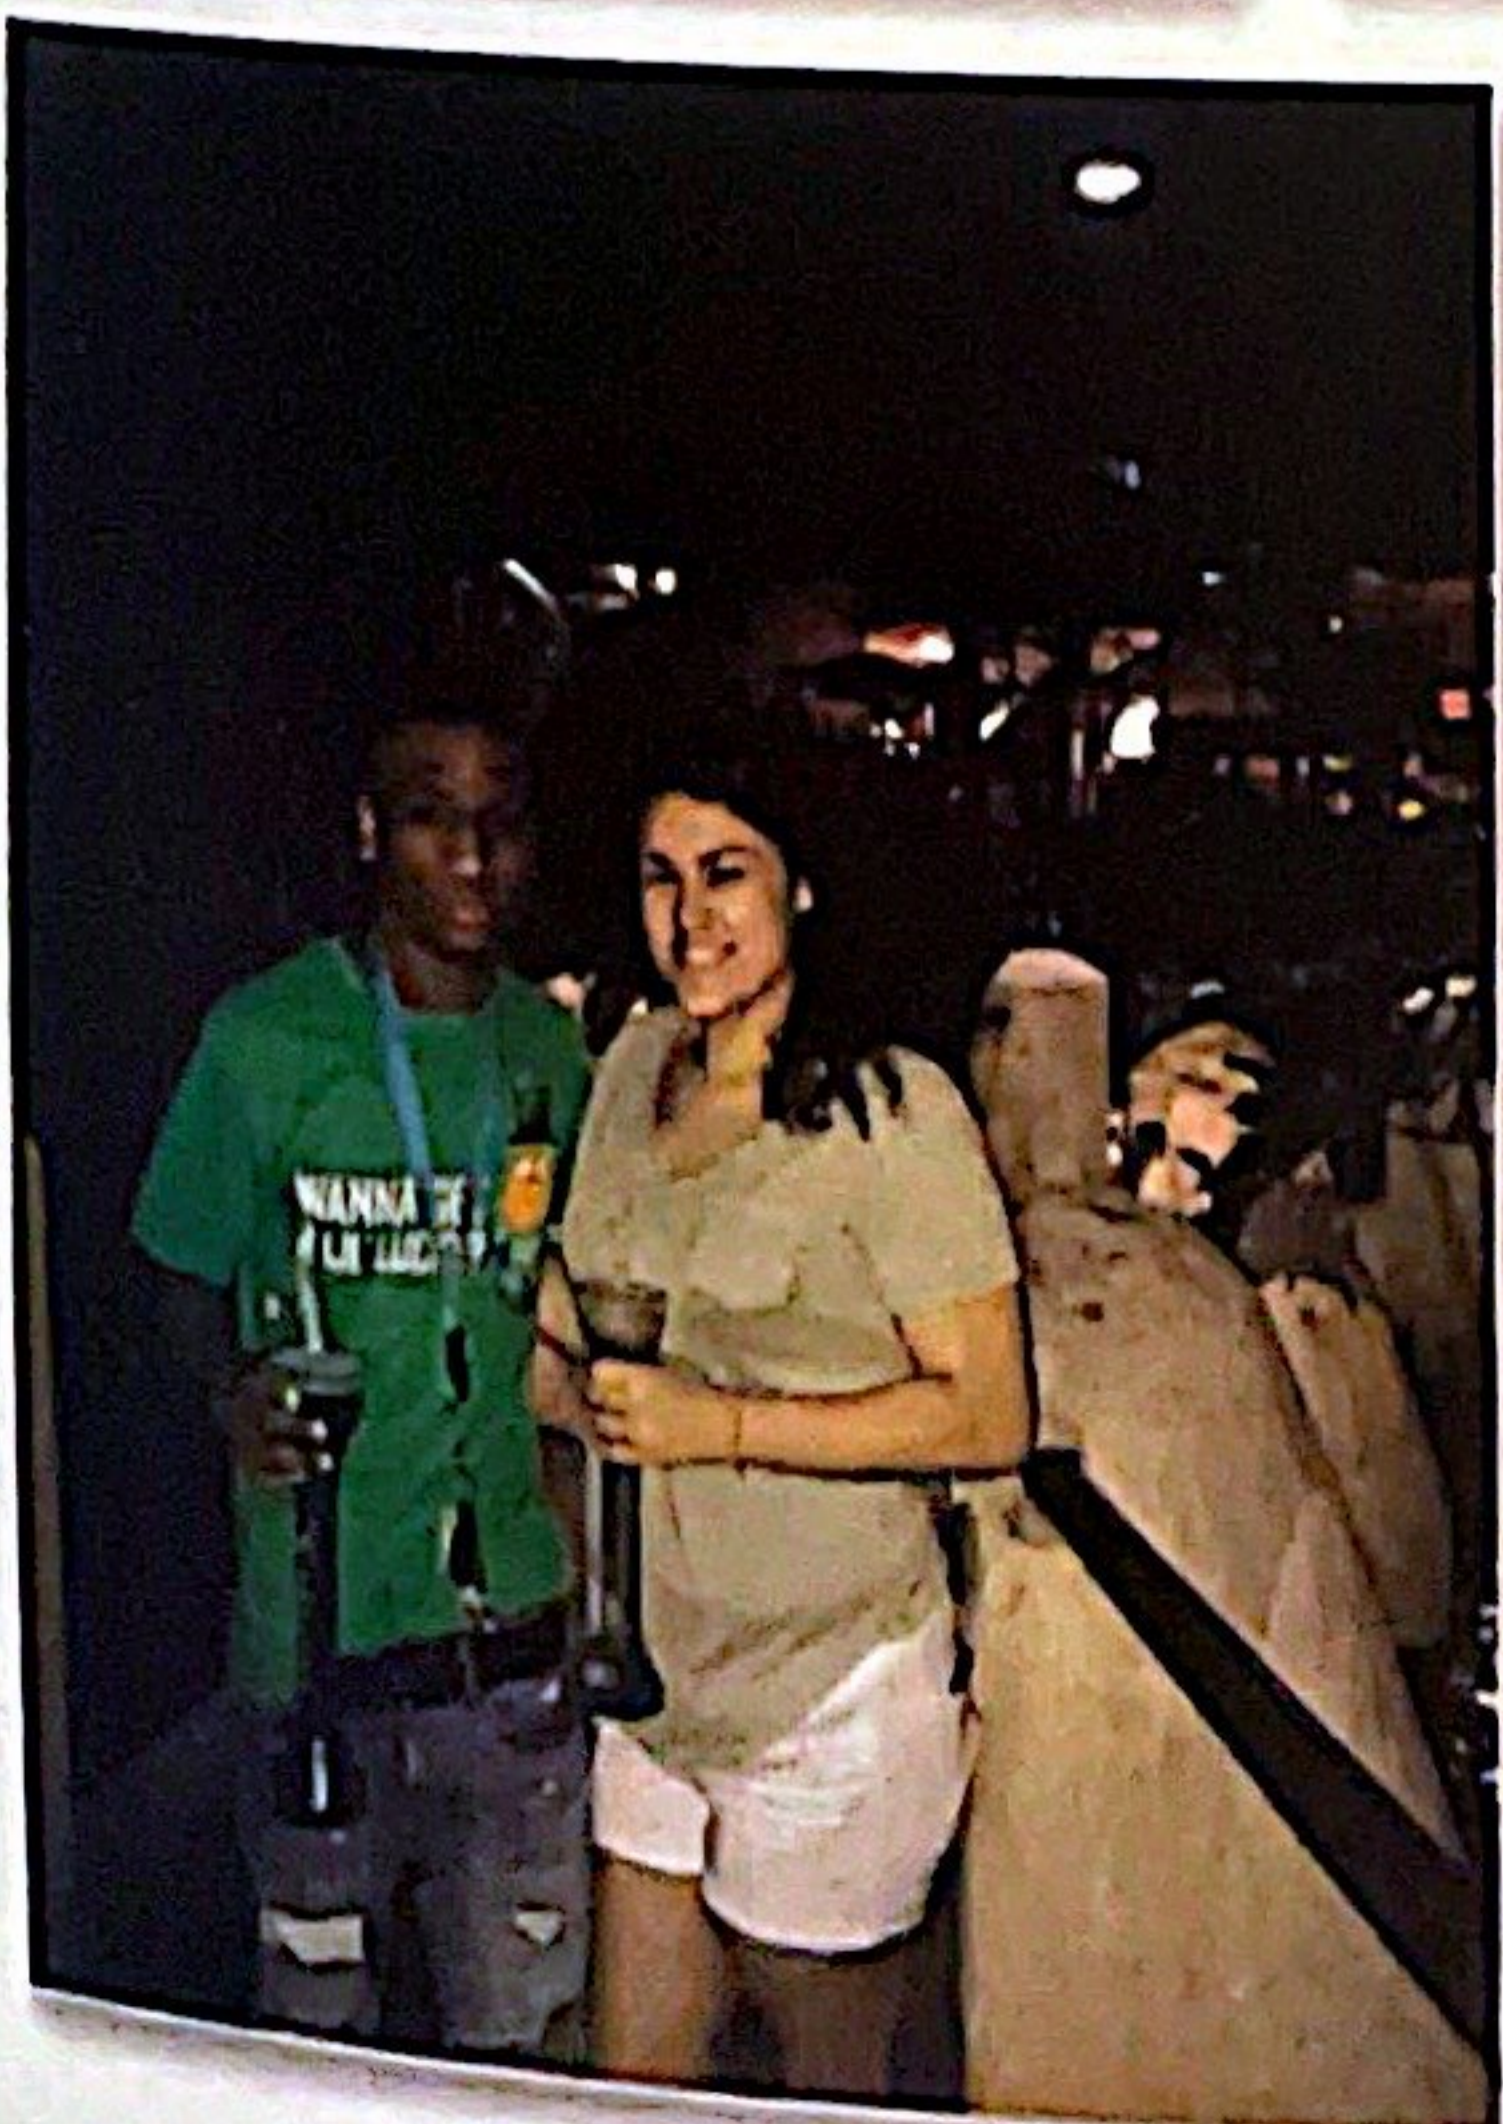

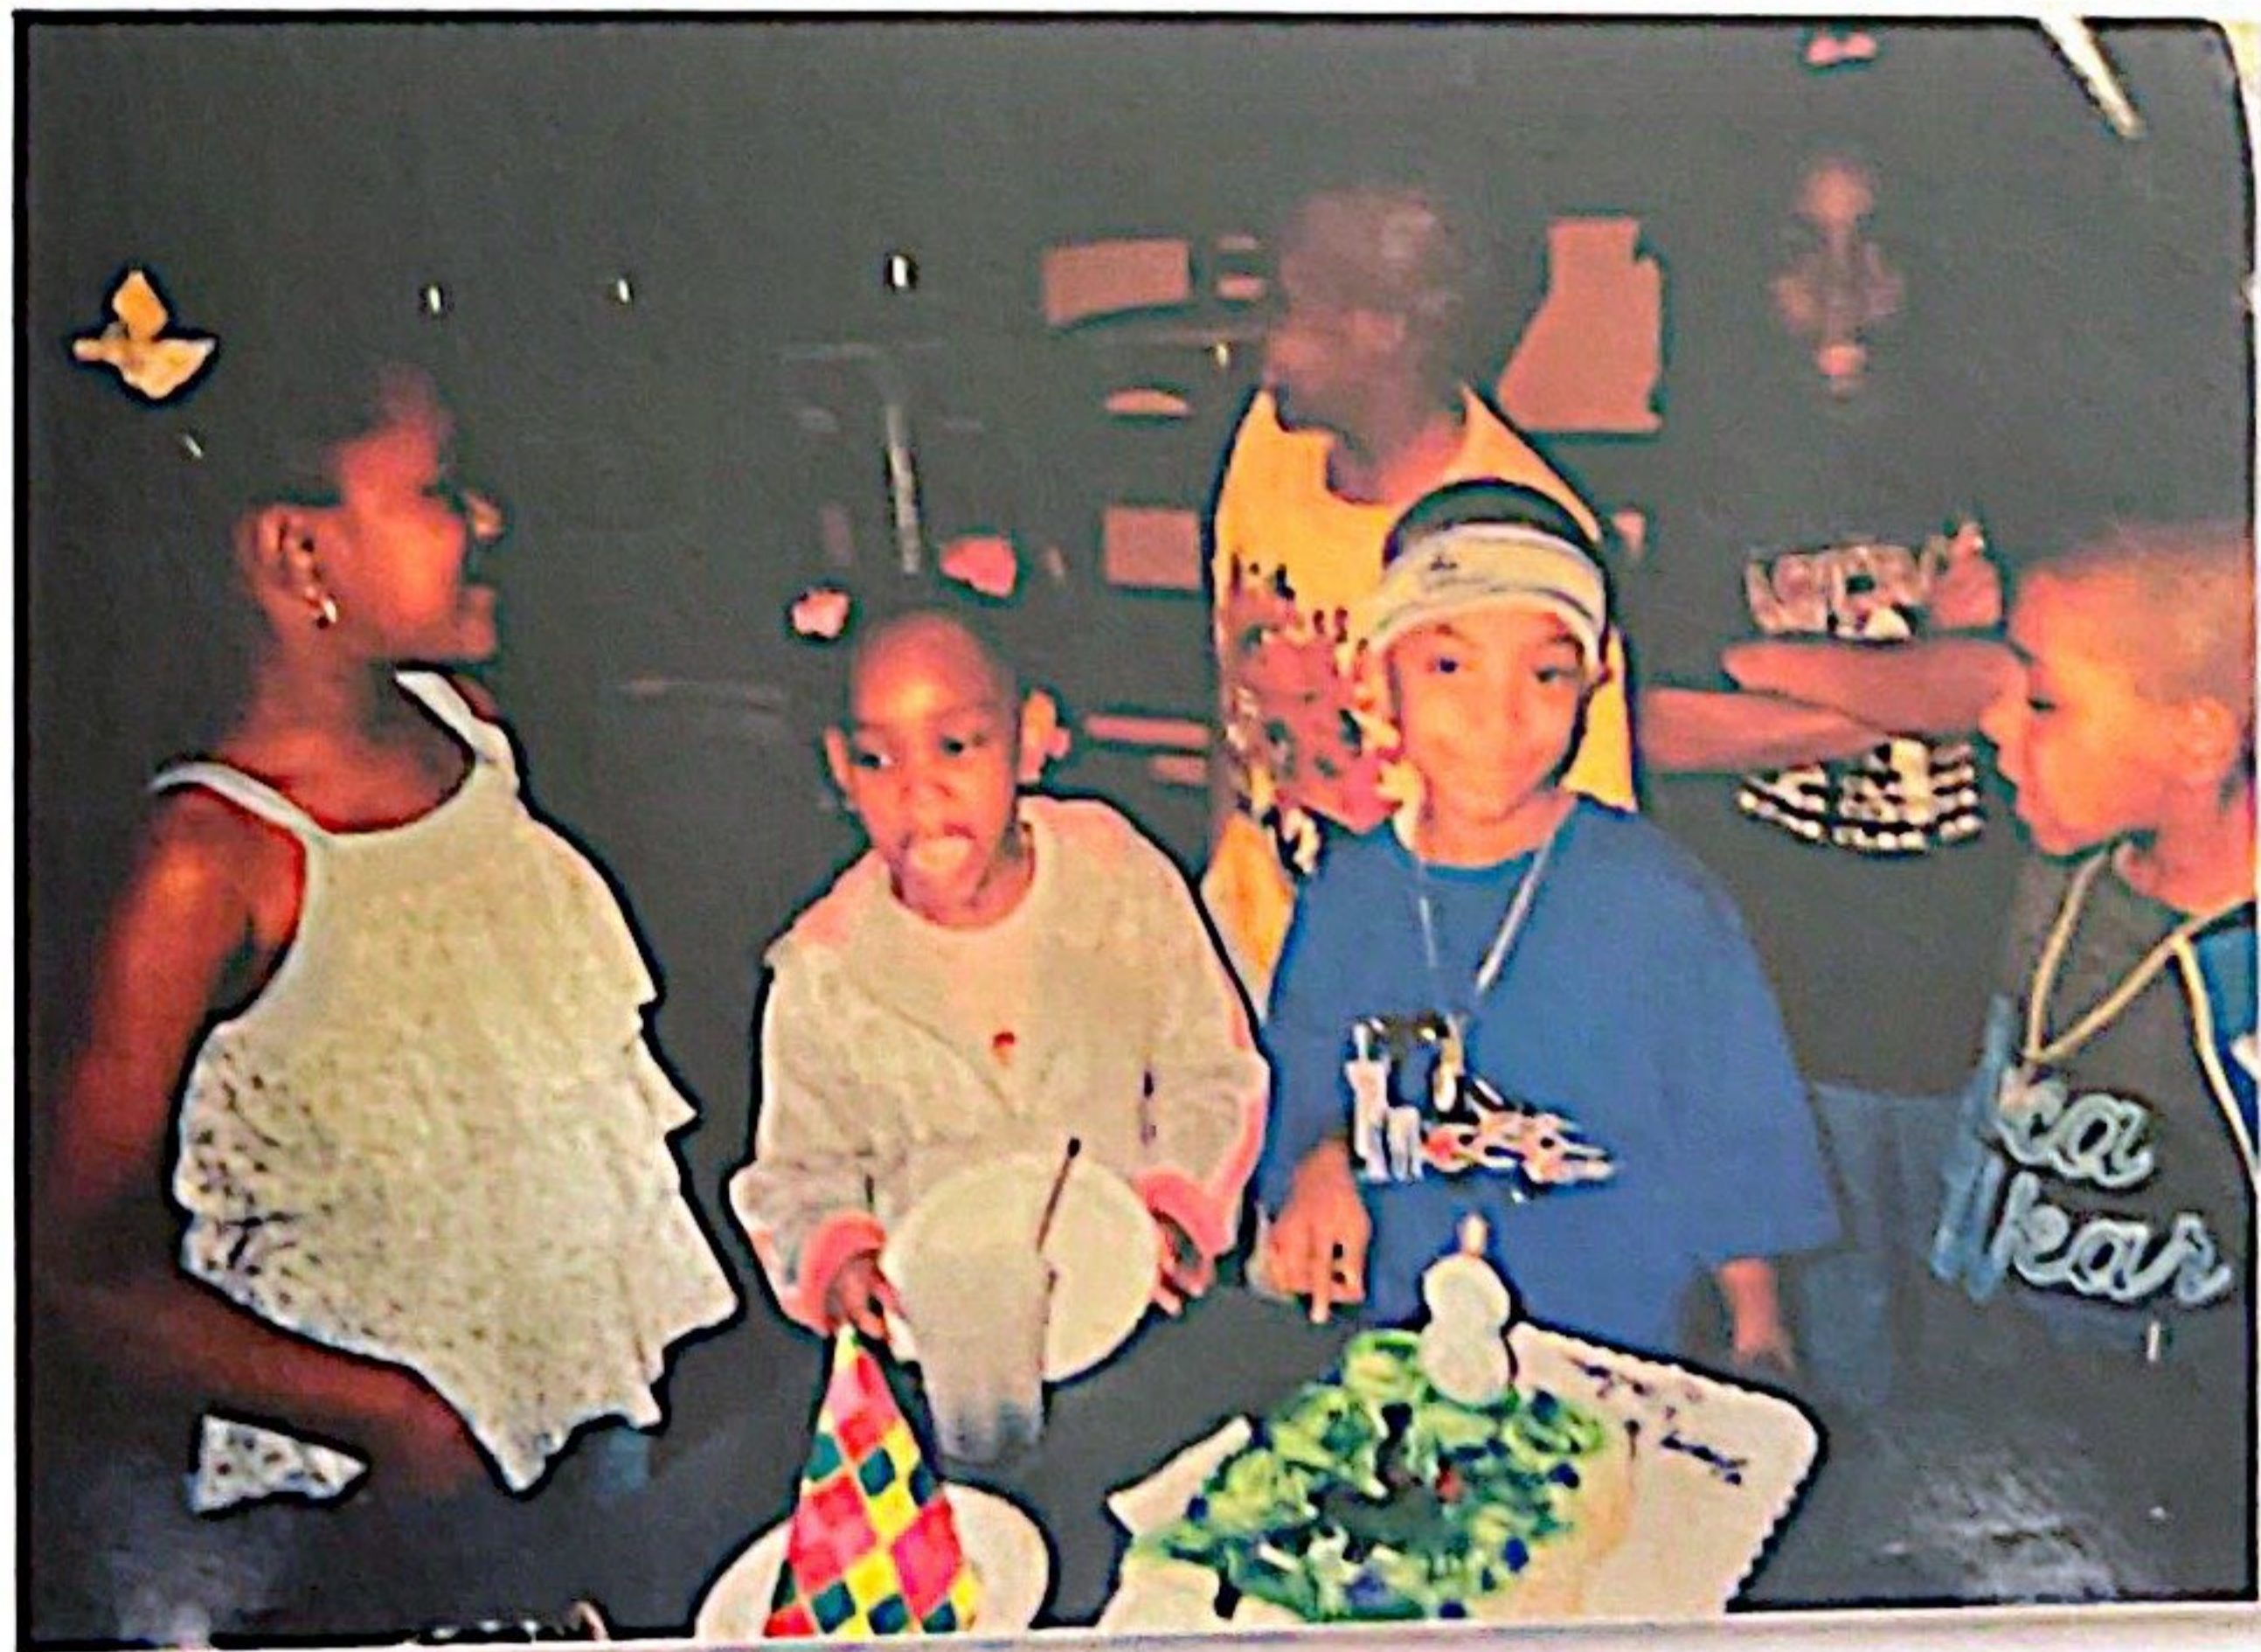

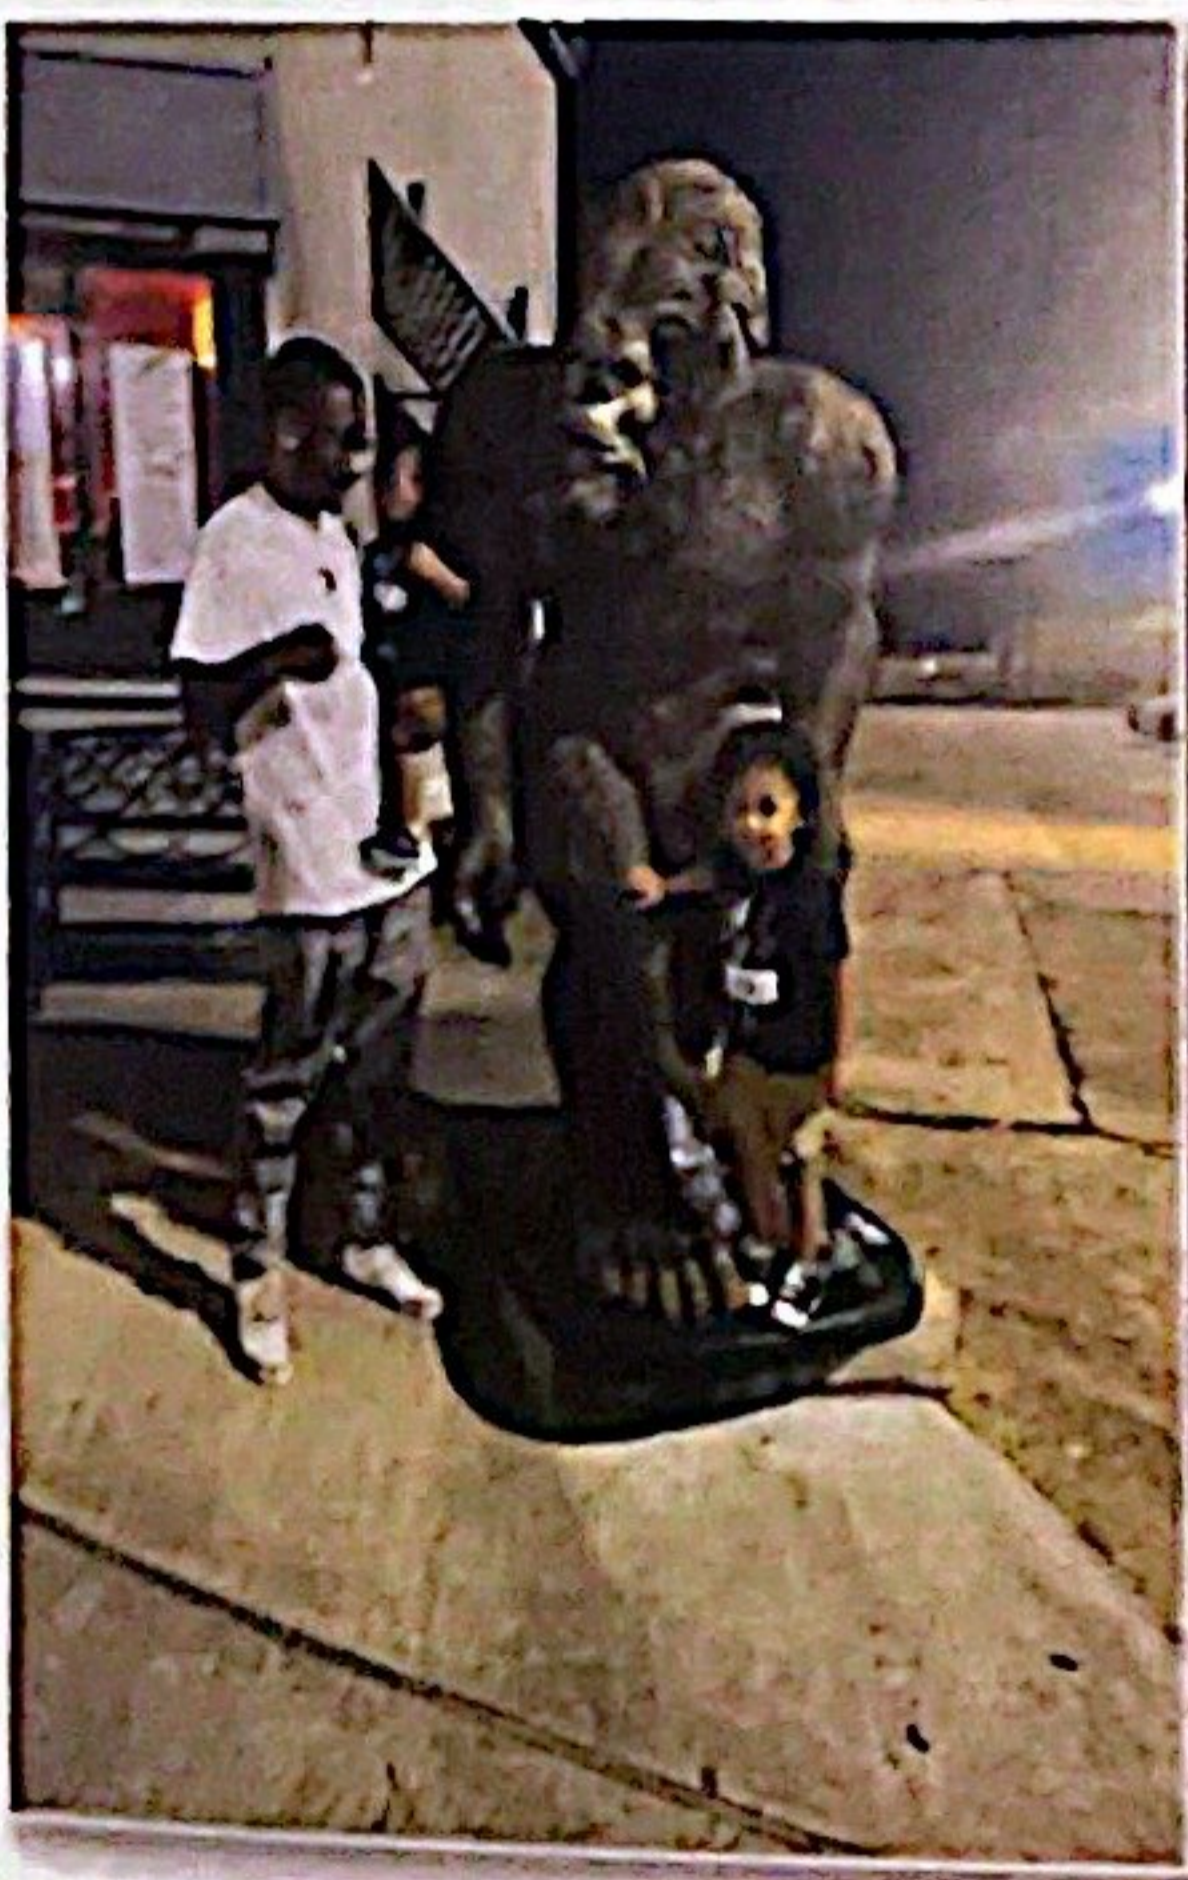

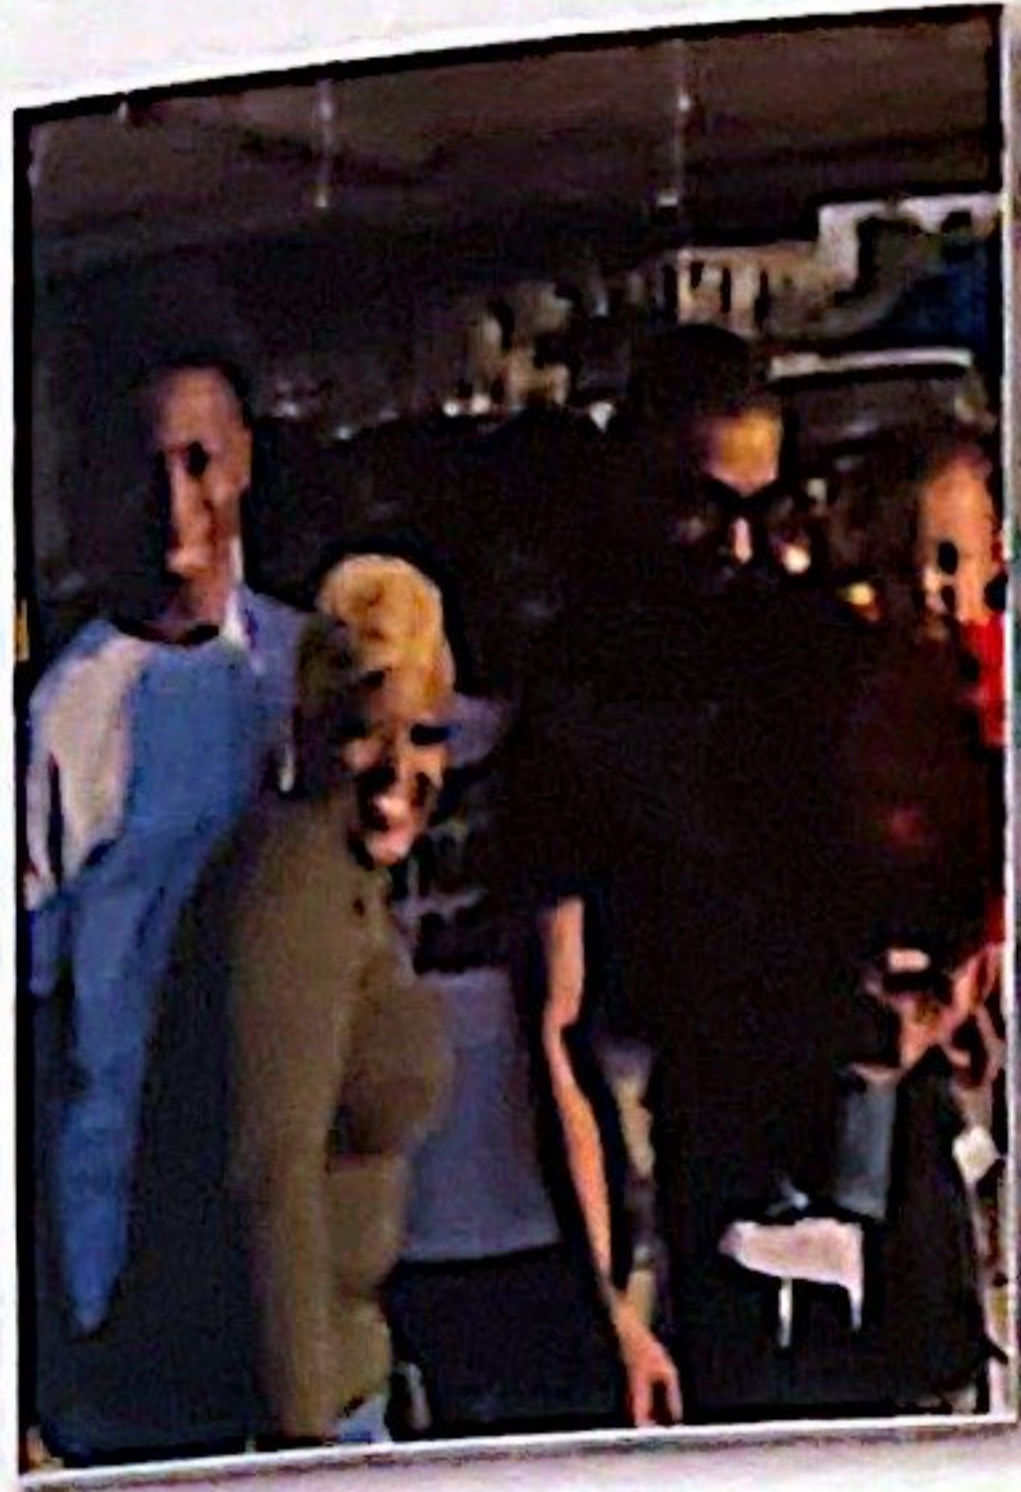

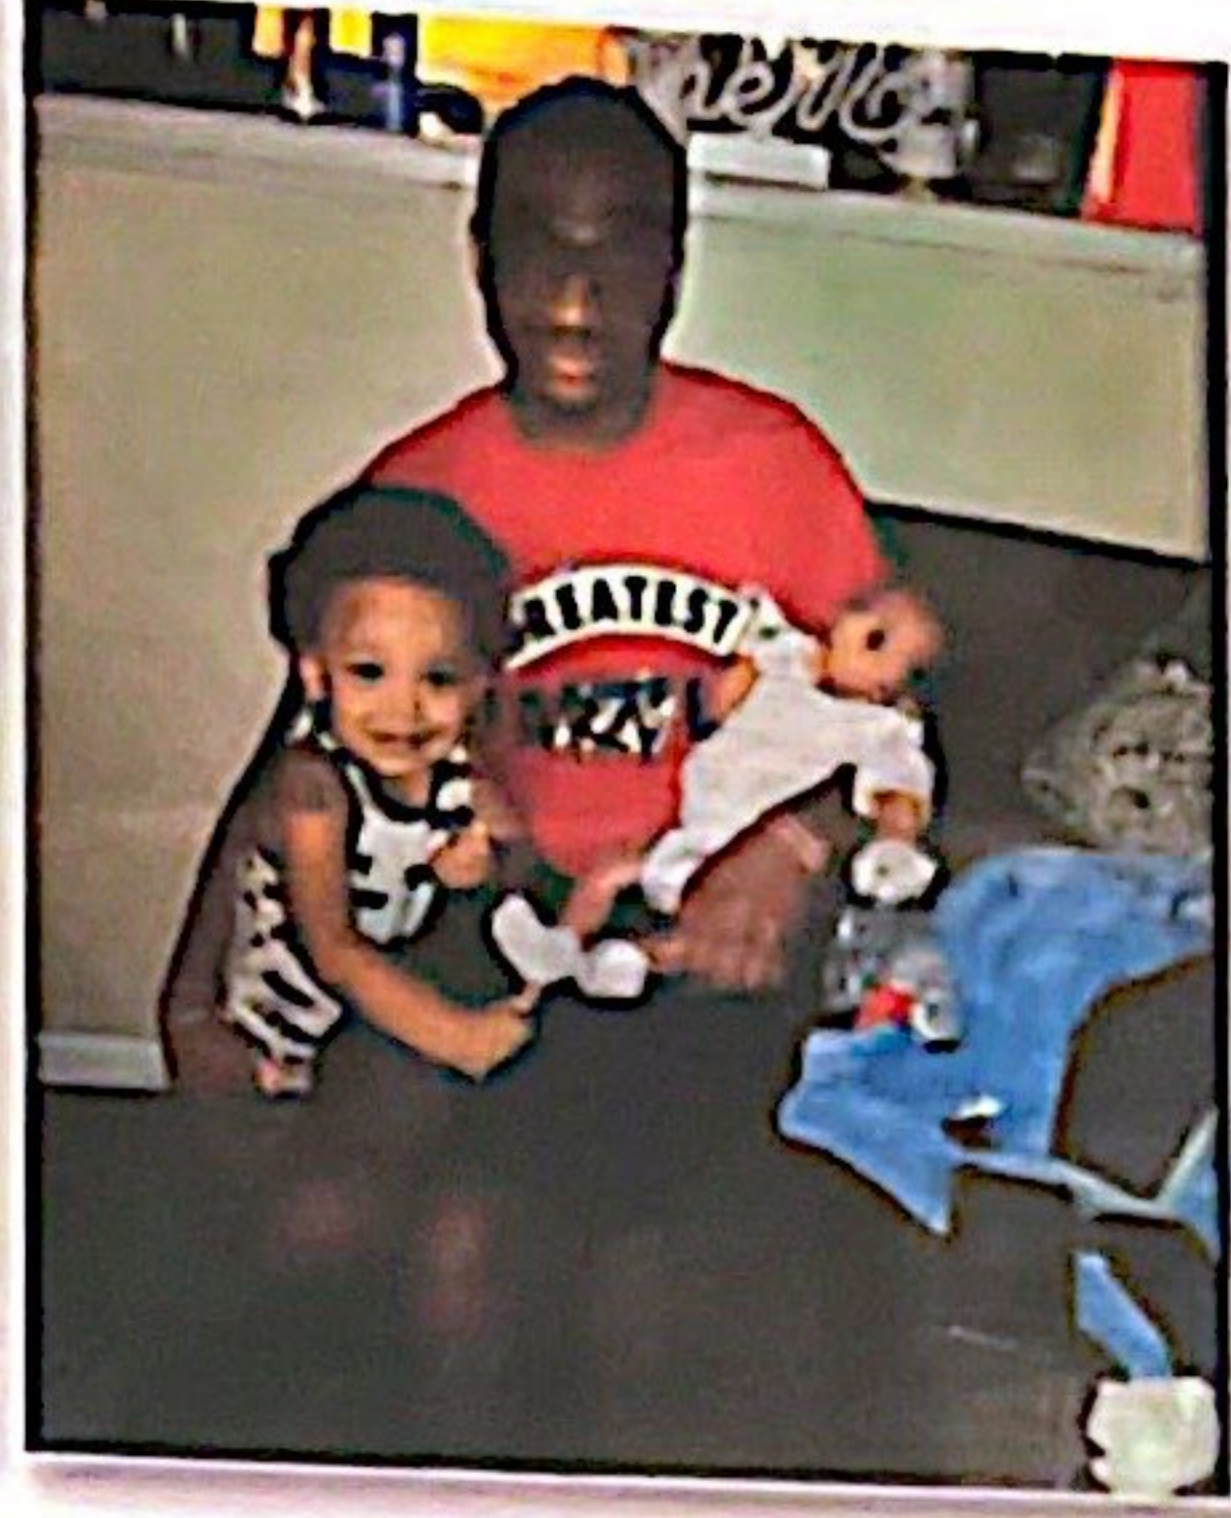

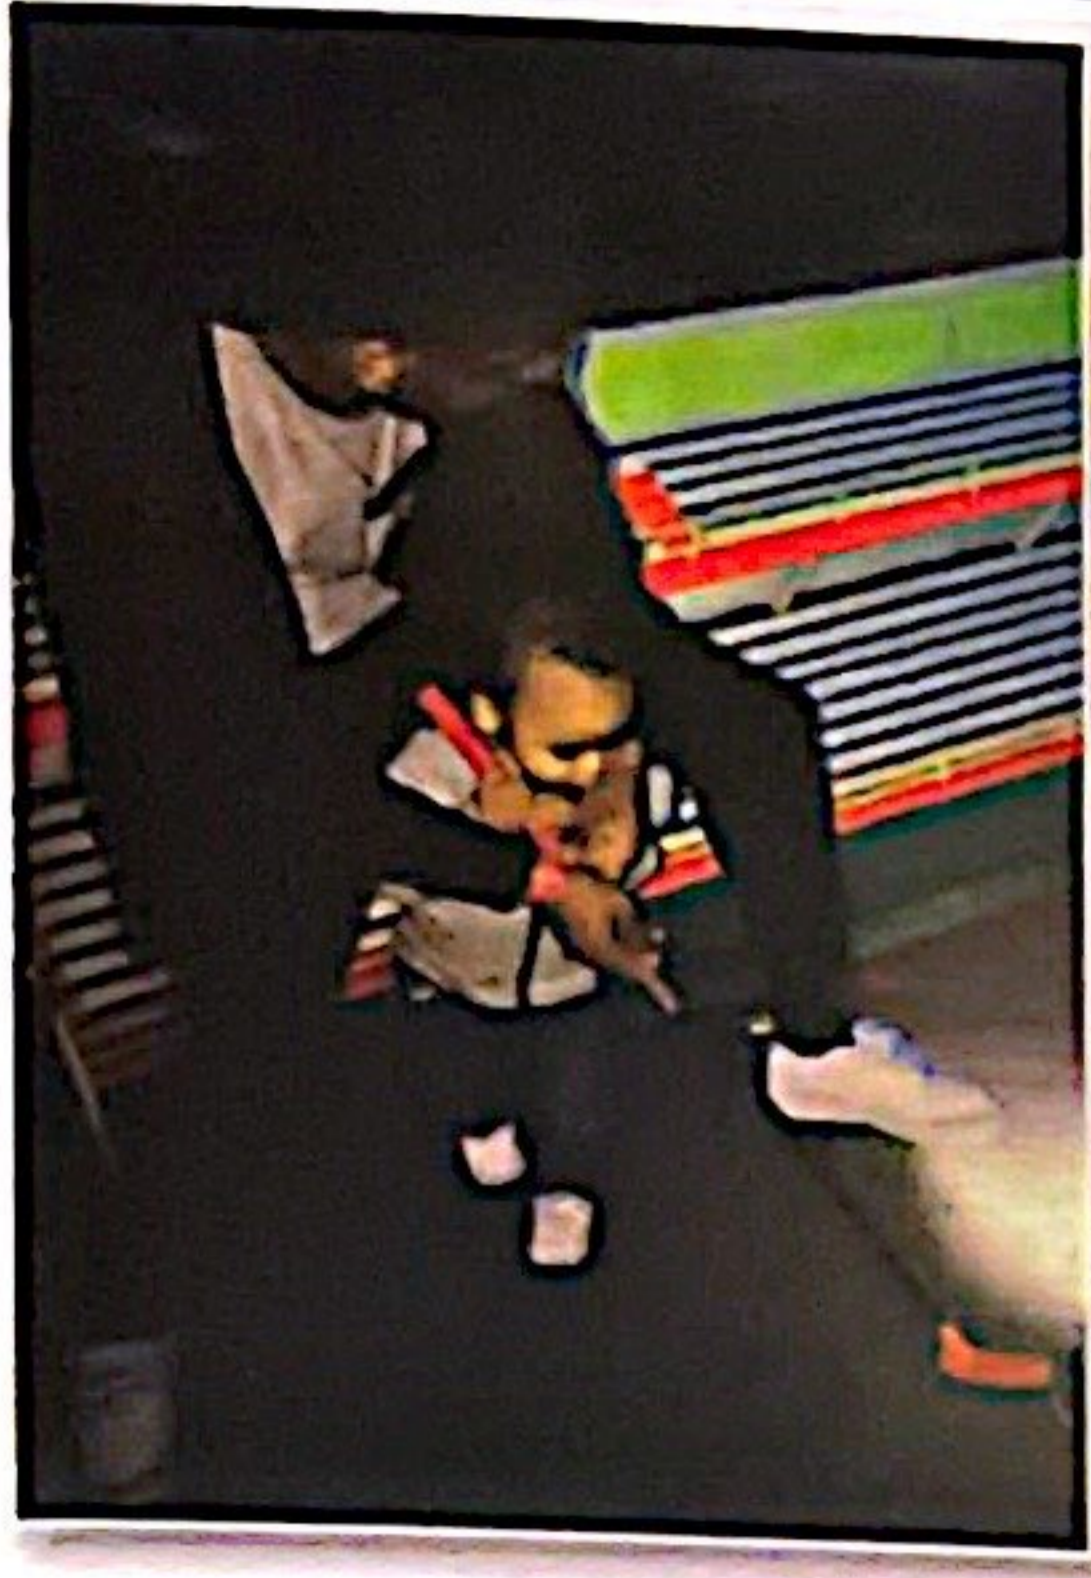

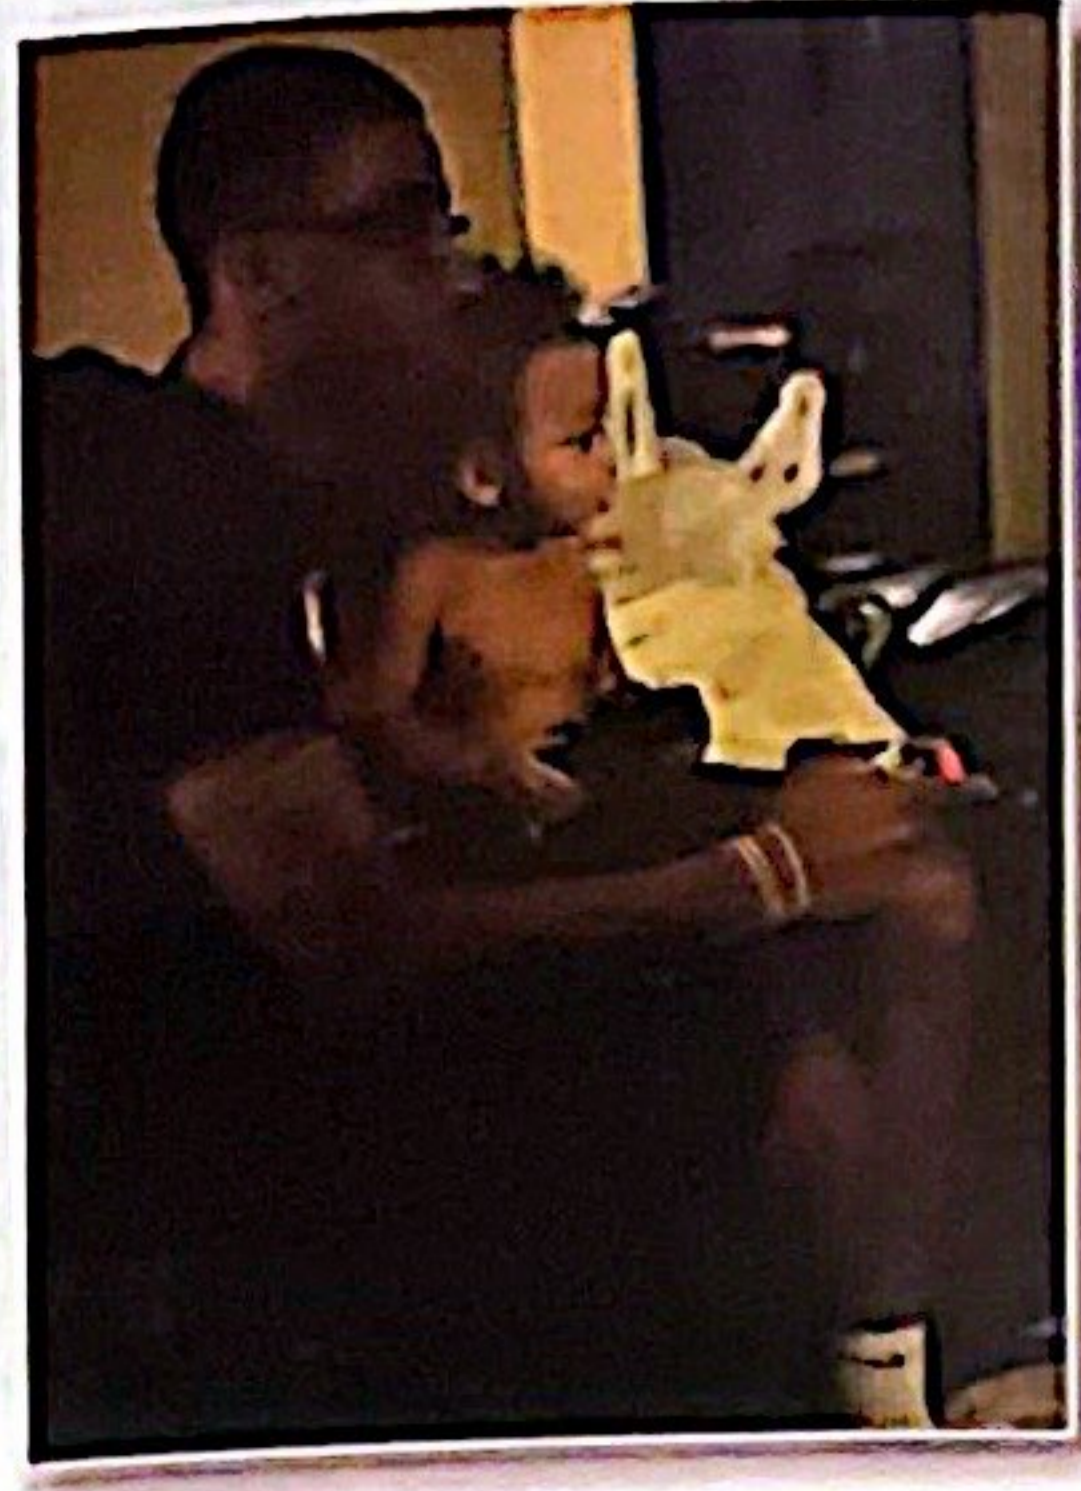

Man nephew I can't put my feelings in words this so hard when you was feeling any kind of way when you needed a man to talk to anything you called me and I was there and told you wassup no matter what it was. I'm shattered for life with this one but uncle gone make sure if your boys need anything I'll be there just as much as I was for you I love you man. -Unc Marlo

Jalen I really wish I wasn't writing this but here I am. Listen you were one of my best friends more like my brother we have a lot of memories together, whenever we were together it was nothing but laughs and fun. When I heard what happened my heart sunk to my stomach instantly! Not jalen can't be right me, you, Malik, JurCory, and Pat were supposed to get old and tell our kids crazy stories. Trust and believe your legacy will live on. I'm sitting here crying but I just know you're not in anymore pain. The family will be taken care of, don't worry you rest peacefully. Until we meet again my brother Myles "AKA" Scooby
