Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair;
perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there; perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;
perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part. May God forever bless each of you.

Psalm 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

Life Story

Willa Mae LeNoir, was born on May 3, 1930 in Hickory, Mississippi to her parents, Aaron Pruitt and Fannie (Johnson) Pruitt. She was raised with her siblings, Alonzo Pruitt, Rev. James T. Pruitt, Leonard Pruitt and Grace (Pruitt) Suggs. As a child, Willa was a country girl, she helped her family wherever they needed and assisted in taking care of her siblings. She was educated through Mississippi Public Schools where she graduated from Good Hope Public School.

Willa moved to Freeport, and there she met Clinton LeNoir. To this union Janice (Easterling) LeNoir was born. Willa and Clinton moved to Denver, Colorado in 1982. Willa and Clinton were formally married in 2007.

By profession, she was an educator, she worked at Marrama Elementary School. After retiring she took on a job working security. She always performed her duties with a spirit of excellence.

Willa was a woman of faith that knew her help came from the Lord. She proudly served as a member of Greater Faith Baptist Church for 20 years.

Throughout her life, Willa was known for her exceptional culinary skills and her nurturing spirit. She was an amazing cook and a loving soul; she touched the hearts of many with her delicious dishes and welcoming demeanor. In her free time, Willa enjoyed various hobbies including cooking, gardening, sewing, singing, attending church services, and savoring a cup of coffee. Most notably, she enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Her grandchildren fondly recall that she would take them on road trips to Illinois, cook them breakfast, going to the Air Force Base to grocery shop, taking them to church and sing worship songs. And to the surprise of many, anytime DMX songs came on she would sing it to them.

Willa is survived by her brother, James T. Pruitt; sister-in-law, Rev. Dr. Ola Pruitt; grandchildren, Dean LeNoir, Damon Easterling, Jeannine Easterling, and Ramone Easterling; great-grandchildren, Brittany Flores, Xavier LeNoir, Regine LeNoir, Dominique "Dee Dee" LeNoir, Seth Garcia, Najanay Sanders, Alvilina, Lavino, MarkAnthony; as well as great-great-grandchildren, Rhiannon, Julian, Zhavia, Xavier, Xaveon, Kayleigh, Kyleigh, Emma, Ella, Jaxson, Amun, Jha'Mari; and nieces and nephews.

Willa Mae LeNoir's legacy of kindness will forever be cherished by all those who were fortunate enough to have known her. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

May she rest in peace.
