Scripture

Psalm 23: 1-6

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Obituary

On a sunny Tuesday, May 16, 1933, in Rayford, Texas, a beautiful smiling daughter, Jessie Lee Pierson was born to Tommy Jessie and Olevia Baltrip Pierson. She was their third daughter.

Rev. R. V. Shrubbs baptized Jessie Lee at Falvey Memorial Baptist Church at an early age.

Jessie Lee was born with a purpose to serve the Lord at all times.

She attended public grade school and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in Conroe, TX in 1951.

Jessie Lee pursued a nursing degree at Prairie View A&M University. As a registered nurse she worked in various school districts serving as a school nurse.

Everyone knew Mrs. Jessie Lee as she traveled to schools in and around Conroe, Tamina, and the southeast Texas school districts taking care of as many students as possible.

She had two sons, Charles Ray Pierson and Stanley Kay Pierson, whom she adored and raised to be honorable and respected gentlemen.

She later met and married on August 26, 1963, James Louis DeWalt affectionately known as Coach/Big Jim. He preceded her in death.

Also preceding her in death are her parents, Tommie Jessie and Olevia (Sugar) Pierson and siblings: Mrs. Katherine Morgan, Mrs. Ollie Mae Rhodes, Mrs. Meredith M. Johnson, Charles Edward Pierson, Mrs. Lillie Pearl Hardin, Mrs. Frankie Dean Yates, Claudie Ann Pierson, Mr. Carvin Pierson, Mr. Tommy Christopher Pierson.

Leaving behind to cherish this wonderful soul's memories are; Charles Ray (Donna), Stanley K. , and a host of loving grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and friends.
