

Robert Pladson was born in Grand Forks, ND on July 13, 1952, the son of Vernon and Lois (Wegge) Pladson. Growing up, he attended Larimore School and graduated in 1970. He continued his education in Wahpeton, where he received a certificate in plumbing and heating. He moved to Colorado for three years and then moved to Northwood, North Dakota, where he met Kay Thingelstad. The couple was married on June 23, 1978 in Northwood. The couple lived in Larimore, ND a year before moving to Dickinson in 1980. During their 27 years in Dickinson, they were blessed to raise five children, Michele, Penny, Sam, and twins Casey and Kelsey. Robert worked in construction and maintenance services to large industrial processing facilities most of his life. He worked for Westcon Industries in Nebraska for the last 20+ years, retiring in 2018. Bob enjoyed working and keeping his hands busy, always having projects on the go. Bob enjoyed football, NASCAR, feeding the birds, 4-wheeling, and spending time with family and friends. He also enjoyed “fixing up” the house and had a project started every chance he got. Bob loved watching and collecting all things, John Wayne (The Duke). Country and Classic rock were his favorite music genres, and he would sing karaoke with Kay or his brother, Bill on a night out. Bob was the “King of the Road” as his favorite song to sing would suggest. Watching sports and watching his sons in motor cross racing was a great past-time. Family gatherings and time spent with his grandchildren were a great joy for Bob. Bob is survived by his children; Michele Pladson of Dickinson, Penny Young, Big Lake, MN, Sam Pladson and Casey Pladson of Dickinson, Kelsey Pladson of Dickinson; mother, Lois Pladson of Bismarck; 4 grandchildren, Logan, Nia, Kaelyn, Oliver; siblings, Larry (Robin) Pladson of Roseau, MN, Jeanne (Dennis) Connelley of Bismarck, and Bill Pladson of Dickinson; numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father, Vernon Pladson; wife, Kay (Thingelstad) Pladson (2007); sister, Karen (Pladson) Bakken.

A Wish Come True

*If I could have a wish come true,
A dream that'd come to pass,
I'd ask to spend a day with you,
And pray that it would last.*

*I'd run to you and hold you close,
We'd laugh and smile again.
I'd listen so intently,
As you told me how you've been.*

*When time was up I'd hold you close
Not wanting to let you go.
You'd smile and tell me,
"See you soon."
And somehow I would know.*

*That while it's very hard to wait,
One day the time will come,
I'll join you there forevermore,
When I too am called Home.*
