~ Reflections of His Life ~

Tyree Cole was born December 14, 1975 in Kansas City, KS to Mary Priscilla Cole.

Tyree was educated in the Kansas City Kansas Public School District. Some time later he attended trade school where he successfully learned the art of Horticulture. He worked various jobs throughout Kansas City, KS. However if you really knew Tyree and his "temperament " you know he eventually decided to become an entrepreneur where he would utilize his skills in horticulture. He would go on to work in Sells and Lawn Service.

Tyree gave his life to Christ and began attending City Center Church in Lenexa.

Tyree really enjoyed chatting about his love and knowledge for cars, landscaping and his love for the Kansas City Chiefs! He loved spending time with family & friends. He also loved generously helping others.

Tyree departed this life on Saturday, July 30, 2022. He is preceded in death by his Grandparents; Rose and Gordie Cole Sr, Mother; Mary P. Cole, and Granddaughter Ty'Lin Claggett.

He leaves to cherish his love and memories his beloved wife Tamea Barnett. His four children De'Juna Cole, Tyra Cole, Tyrin Claggett, and Kristofer Johnson. His sister Mickalasha Cole. Brother Joshua Reed-Cole Sr(Kimerly). Uncles Gordie Cole Jr.(Dolly), Robert Cole Sr., David Cole, and Rodney Cole. Aunts, Betty McCoy, Juanita Cole, Yvonne Copper, and his bonus Aunt Linda Smith, and a host of nephews, nieces and cousins.
