

In Loving Memory of

Helen Beach Cannon

Born June 9, 1938 - Logan, Utah

Died March 7, 2024 - Salt Lake City, Utah

PALLBEARERS

Carrie C. Scheidel	Jacob Cannon Alder
Clara Alder Holdstock	Liza Cannon
Clayton Holdstock	Madeleine Alder
Frances Cannon	Zoe Morgan

INTERMENT

Logan City Cemetery

Dedication of the Grave . . . . . Nate Alder

Special thanks to Clara Alder Holdstock for creating the flower arrangement for the casket in honor of Helen’s garden.

FUNERAL SERVICE

Saturday, March 30, 2024 - 11:00 AM

Allen-Hall Mortuary

Kurtis Williams, Conducting

Family Prayer . . . . . Jacob Cannon Alder
 Prelude Music . . . . . Jessa Young
 Welcome . . . . . Kurtis Williams
 Opening Prayer . . . . . Clara Alder Holdstock
 Life Sketch . . . . . Bruce L. Cannon
 Musical Number . . . . . Grandchildren

“When All Those Endearing Young Charms”

Accompanied by: Zoe Morgan

Speaker . . . . . Frances Cannon
 Speaker . . . . . Steven B. Cannon
 Speaker . . . . . Laurel Cannon Alder
 Closing Prayer . . . . . Madeleine Alder
 Postlude Music titled “The Lord’s Prayer” is sung by Larry Cannon.

IN LOVING MEMORY

If grief could melt as snow,
Seeping into the cold souls depths,
Then spring and hope would wake;
And the roots of dormant roses would drink the sorrow snow,
Nourishing the lovely bloom of spring.

By: Helen Cannon

Helen Beach Cannon

1938 - 2024

