In Loving Memory
OF A SPECIAL SON

*The day you left and gained your wings my heart just broke in two
I wish you could have stayed with me, but Heaven needed you*

*You left me with the memories, and I love you dearly still
No matter how much time goes by, you know I always will*

*You were a very special person with kindness in your heart
And the love we had together grows stronger now we're apart*

*I know I cannot bring you back. Although I wish it everyday
But a piece of me went with you, the day you went away*

Obituary

Jabari Walker, a beloved son, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend, departed this life on August 20, 2023, at the young age of 17.

He was born on November 13, 2005, at East Georgia Regional Medical Center to his loving parents, Shatheria (Young) Lewis and Ray Walker, Jr. Jabari was a senior at Statesboro High School, and was currently dual enrolled at Ogeechee Technical College, with plans to become a certified welder.

Jabari held a special place in the hearts of his family and friends. Jabari will always be remembered for his remarkable qualities that left a lasting impact on those who knew him. He exuded confidence in everything he pursued, and approached life with an unwavering sense of self-assurance. His respectfulness towards others earned him admiration from both peers and elders alike. With a quick wit and a contagious sense of humor, Jabari had the ability to lighten any room and bring smiles to everyone's faces. His outgoing nature allowed him to effortlessly connect with people from all walks of life.

Jabari was preceded in death by his late sister, Ser'Ray Walker, his late uncle, Jatavier "Jock" Jackson, his late cousin, Tamashe Jones, and his late great grandfather, Eugene Johnson.

Jabari leaves to cherish his memory, his loving parents, Shatheria and Eric Lewis and Ray Walker, Jr.; his godmother, Ms. Kenya Williams; his godfather, Andrew Williams; his siblings whom he loved dearly: Reagan Walker, Chance Young, Payton Lewis, A'Zina Walker, and Savant Walker; his maternal grandparents, Sylvia Bryant and Shelton Prince (Lynn, MA); his maternal great grandparents, Eula Mae Young and Semmie Young, and James Mosley (Vidalia, GA); his paternal grandparents, Pastor Mattie Brinson and Ray Walker, Sr.; his paternal great grandmother, Francis Walker-Johnson; special aunts: Shawan Prince, Chiquita Prince, Shatavia Bryant, Victoria Deloach, and Amber Williams; special uncles: Demetrius Young, Sequavis Mikell, Tavares Drake, Demetrius Millen, Eddie Brinson, Jr., and Dareyl Hagan; special cousins: Camren Prince, De'Terrius Hagan, Dacorius Hagan, Disaya Hagan, Jacaden Shipman, Jaylee Shipman, Dailei Hagan, Averyannah Jones, Brandon Jones, Jr., Kaybree Bryant, Tahirah Jones, Mack Young, Trentis Jones, and Kase Williams.

Jabari's memory will also be cherished by a host of other aunts, uncles, relatives, and friends. Though deeply mourned by those who cherished him dearly, we find solace in knowing that Jabari's memory will forever live on within our hearts. May he rest peacefully as we hold onto the beautiful memories we shared with him during his time with us.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.
