Pastor's Note

A CHURCH SHARING THE GOOD NEWS

by Ramon V. Baldovino

This year this bulletin space will be filled with materials drawn from a book written by Elmer Towns, Dean Emeritus of the School of Religion and Theological Seminary at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. It is entitled "I Am Jesus: Let's Change the World."

"We gave you strict orders never again to teach in this man's name!" he said, 'Instead, you have filled all Jerusalem with your teaching about him.'" (Acts 5:28, NLT)

The disciples went all over Jerusalem telling everyone about Me, Jesus. Their bold testimony got them in trouble with the authorities. They told their accusers, "We must obey God rather than any human authority" (v. 29). That is what I want you to do: tell everyone the Good News that I died to forgive their sins. Give them a testimony of My power that has changed your life. After all, I am more important to you than anything else (Phil. 1:21), and I can do more for them than anyone else. I need to tell them the Good News. I can't do it; I am in heaven. Let me minister to your friends and family through your testimony and acts of kindness. After all, you may be the only gospel testimony they ever experience.

The disciples filled Jerusalem teaching everyone about Me. They used every opportunity to share the gospel with everyone who would listen to them, and they did it at every available occasion and time. Now you should think of creative ways to tell friends and family about Me. The more often they hear about Me, the more likely they will be converted.

Personal Prayer: Lord, show me creative ways to share my testimony with friends and family. Help me use every opportunity to give my testimony of how I got saved. Help me to reach every friend and relative with the gospel. Help me use time wisely when I am with them to share the power of Your saving grace in my life. Amen.

KEY THOUGHT: The early church didn't limit their ministry to announced church time but used every available method to reach every person with the gospel.
