

To Whom It May Concern:

There are so many great coaches in the world with so much to offer, but hands down Tracy stands out among the crowd. As a performance coach, Tracy is excellent and committed to constantly bettering herself and her clients. As a Performance Coach University Graduate, Tracy received top marks in her dedicated studies and a reputation with her mentors for her uncanny ability to truly listen to those whom she works with in an engaging and passionate way.

Tracy is a dynamic individual who truly embodies the qualities she works so hard to teach and instill in her coaching clients. Any person or organization that reaches out to Tracy for coaching services will most definitely benefit from her amazing coaching skills.

Sincerely,

Jairek & Amanda Robbins

Founders, Performance Coach University