- CC (now debt free) suffers with anxiety and has been put on 18 month waiting list for counselling 2 months ago. C has 8yr old daughter who she finds a handful. She has only occasional support from her mum and child's father as his shift-work allows, but mostly is in a single-mum situation. C has now got P.I.P as her anxiety is so bad so that helps her in not being pressured to seek work. Can we please pray C gets counselling soon and she copes well with her daughter especially in school holidays.
