Family and Friends

Dad, Mom and Cedric

Dalan we are going to miss you so much more than words could ever say. You brought so much joy and laughter to our lives. Such a good, loving, easy to love and to please son and brother. You never asked for much, just a little to eat and a lot of television. To have had you and to love you has been one of the greatest pleasures and blessings of our lives. We are so thankful to God for the GIFT of YOU Dalan. The fond memories of you are forever engraved in our hearts and mind. We will love you eternally...And as you preferred to say, "Later"... so until then with joy we'll try to carry on...

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to extend a heartfelt thanks to everyone for the kindness, support and prayers during this difficult time. May God continue to bless you is our prayer.

Dalan Ira Dumas was born July 12, 1989 to Enoch and Elinda Dumas in Savannah, GA. He was the youngest of two children.

Dalan was raised in a Christian home and accepted the Lord Jesus as his Savior in his early teenage years. He was a member of Faith Chapel Church of God in Christ under the leadership of his Father, Elder Enoch Dumas, Pastor. He was an active church member attending Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, singing in the choir and as he grew, played a major role as trumpeter, drummer and piano player for his church. Dalan thoroughly enjoyed spending summers at "Big Mama's House" with his brother and cousins.

He attended Chatham County Public Schools, graduating from Jenkins High School in 2007. He had a passion for music and was an excellent trumpeter and band section leader.

Dalan furthered his education by attending Bethune Cookman University in Daytona Beach, FL. He joined the United States Marine Corp in 2012, served 4 years and discharged as a Corporal.

He lived in the Clearwater and Tampa, Florida area where he was gainfully employed for the last 3 years.

Dalan leaves to mourn his loving parents, Supt Enoch and Elinda Dumas; one brother, Cedric Dumas (Alexa) of Savannah, GA; grandmother, Betty J. Bell; grandfather, Charles F. Dumas and a host of aunts, uncles, relatives and friends (Blue, Travis, Jerrod and Josh, aka Squirrel).
