

Eva Jean Golliday, 72 of Smiths Grove died Sunday, April 12, 2015 at St Thomas Hospital in Nashville, Tn.

The Warren County native was a daughter of the late Arthur "Bot" and Mary Elizabeth "Sis" Pearson Cooke. She is preceded in death by a grandchild Davalos Shobe and a brother, Bobby Joe Cooke and a niece, Pam Cooke. She was in Health Care Services and Holley Automotive, a member of Icy Sink Baptist Church where she was president of the usher board and on the kitchen committee.

Her survivors include her daughter, Donna Bailey (Tim); five sons, Larry Shobe (Rosemary), Gary Shobe (Rayvena ), Jimmy Pillow (Pam), Tyrone Martin (Betty), Shawn Golliday; ten grandchildren; 15 great grandchildren , one great great grandchild; a brother, Charles Cooke (Lola) several nieces and nephews.

Funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Saturday at Icy Sink Baptist Church with burial in the church cemetery. Visitation will be 3:00-8:00 p.m. Friday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel and 9:30 -11:00 a.m. Saturday at the church.

Send Condolences