1984 JAMUS BRIAN HATHAWAY 2024

Jamus Brian Hathaway, known affectionately as "Woo-Woo," of Murfreesboro, TN, was born on October 23, 1984, to the late Mary Ann and Augusta Hathaway Jr.

He graduated from Blackman High School, where he made a name for himself as a star athlete in football. On March 31, 2013, Jamus recommitted his life to Christ, embracing a path of faith.

A true adventurer at heart, Jamus loved competing in bodybuilding, fishing, and savoring great food. His greatest joy came from making family and friends laugh, embodying a fun-loving and rebellious spirit that touched everyone who knew him.

Jamus gained his wings on October 2, 2024. He was predeceased by his sister, Chalana Mychole (Reich) Hathaway, his mother, Mary Ann (Sneed) Hathaway, and his father, Augusta Hathaway Jr. He leaves behind his brother, Augusta DeJuan Hathaway; his three children, Austin, Abby, and Hailey Hathaway; his granddaughter, Aa'Ryan Hathaway; his nieces and nephew, Tebria Reich, Ahngel Reich, and Augusta DeJuan Hathaway Jr.; his life partner, Rhonda Phillips; along with a loving extended family of aunts, uncles, cousins, and teammates.

If Jamus could speak to us now, he would say, "Y'all, my life may have been short, but it was packed with adventure and fun. Sure, I raised a little hell on Earth, but I made it to Heaven! This isn't goodbye; it's just 'see you later.' I'll be up there lifting weights, devouring chicken drenched in hot sauce, and if any angels get out of line, you better believe I'm gonna curse them out . Love y'all!"
