THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF Ronald J. Choyce Jr.

Ronald James Choyce Jr., was born on July 3, 1990, to Ronald Choyce Sr., and Tracey Dyson in Los Angeles, CA. He received his formal education through the Los Angeles Unified School District, and Clark County School District then later received his GED.

Ronald accepted Christ at a very young age where he attended and was Baptized at New Pleasant Hill M.B.C under the leadership of Pastor Melvin Hill. Growing up Ronald played Pop Warner football for the South Bay Packers. As a teenager he decided to hang out with friends from his neighborhood and became a member of the 99 Mafia Crip Gang, going by the name of Tiny Tune. On June 24, 2006, he moved to Las Vegas, Nevada. In 2007 & 2008 Ronald played on the Las Vegas Semi-Pro football team, and in 2019 he took interest and became a member of the Self Inflicted Nutzz (S.I.N) Motorcycle Club carrying the name Beanz.

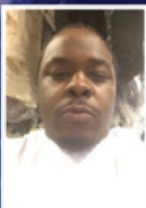

Ronald was very gifted with his hands. He was a wonderful tattoo artist who loved to draw. He also loved to take things apart and try to put them back together. No matter what he was doing or where he was at, he was the life of the party.

He was proceeded in death by his son Ryder J. Choyce, Demetreus J. Beard (Showtiim3 a brother from another), Grandfather James L. Choyce, Great grandparents Roy and Lorine Scott, Lenard and Lorraine Choyce, and Jack and Pearline Carter.

Ronald leaves to cherish his memory daughters Rayonna Choyce, and Tianna Choyce, Father Ronald Choyce Sr., Mother Tracey Dyson, Stepfather Andre Hardiman, Grandmothers Gloria Dyson, and Velma Choyce, (8) sisters - Vannessa (Timothy) Martin of Las Vegas, NV, Essence Brownlee, Sherrell Newsome, Kiara Nettles all of L.A., CA, Charity Walker, Labresha Walker, Ayana Choyce, Olivia Choyce all of Gilmer, TX. LOVING TRIBUTES TO Ronald J. Choyce Jr.

Dear Nephew,

The clouds have opened nephew and your welcomed into those gates, It's the loss that I'm feeling but I must keep the faith. I know your soul will be reaching out. A hand showing us we all can begin to heal and smile again but still,

I GO THERE

You captured a lot of hearts and became a beacon of light, your energy brought smiles to faces helping them forget about their own stress and strife. Those cloudy days I will close my eyes and remember your smile, it won't be easy, but it will hold and comfort me for a while but still

I GO THERE

Now you're among family and friends, laughing and talking about old times rooting for us to win, right now you have us all shook, God already had you written in his book. You have been embraced by powerful hands so now we all have to stand tall and navigate through this land. I'll miss you nephew it's still hard to bare, you left a spark in my heart but still,

I GO THERE

-Uncle Joe Jiles
