Sylvia Ann (Tucek) Jezek was born on April 8, 1940 to Frank and Tillie (Plihal) Tucek on the family farm near Tripp, South Dakota. She attended Maag School #81 through the 8th grade. She obtained her GED later in life, of which she was very proud.

She was united in marriage to Lars Jezek, October 24, 1961, at Saints Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church, rural Tyndall, South Dakota. Sylvia was a hardworking farm wife, milking cows, spraying beans and raising ducks, chickens, sheep and pigs. She also worked as the activities assistant, for a year or two, at Tripp Good Samaritan Center in the 1980s. Sylvia then traveled with Lars, who was working as an electrician, to numerous states in the late 1990s until 2015.

Sylvia enjoyed sewing and patching, making baby quilts and in the past few years, enjoyed playing cards with her friends at Pep's Pub. In her early years, she enjoyed the polka dances, with Lars and their friends, at Groveland Park. She was also the Queen of Tripp's "Days of '86" in 1961.
