Pastor's Note

A TEACHING CHURCH FOR THE YOUNG

This year this bulletin space will be filled with materials drawn from a book written by Elmer Towns, Dean Emeritus of the School of Religion and Theological Seminary at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. It is entitled "I Am Jesus: Let's Change the World."

"And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands... repeat them again and again to your children...when you are at home...on the road...going to bed and...getting up." (2 Timothy 2:2, NLT)

I want My church diligently teaching all children. Timothy was an early church leader who was first taught by his grandmother, then his mother. Paul reminded him, "You have been taught the holy scriptures from childhood" (2 Timothy 3:15, NLT). That is the example for all churches today. When this standard is reached, then growing exponential churches can change the world by producing reproducing believers. Satan wants to capture everyone in My church, and he will start with those most vulnerable—the children. Protect your children; teach them about Me. Guarantee your church's future; teach the children.

A child is born with a blank slate. They must learn to talk, walk and feed themselves. They must be taught to read, write and communicate. Make sure they learn basic Christianity, how to follow Me. Then they must learn basic beliefs, knowledge about God, sin, salvation and Christian service. The more they learn, the stronger Christians they will become. The better they are trained, the more they can do for Me and the church. I love churches that teach the young.

Personal Prayer: Lord, it's clear You have commanded us to teach the children. Forgive me and forgive my church where we have failed. I want to teach children and I want my children to be strong future leaders for You. Amen.

KEY THOUGHT: Everything you know about Christianity will be lost to the church when you die, so teach the young so that they can replace you and they can teach the next generation.
